3. 16.3.2015

Counsel for the appellant present. Learned counsel for the appellant argued that the appellant was initially employed in Police Department in BPS-5 and, after obtaining NOC, he was employed in Education Department in BPS-7 and that the appellant is now serving in Education Department in BPS-12. That the respondents have denied to count previous service of the appellant rendered in Police Department towards the service benefits. That the appellant preferred service appeal which was converted into a departmental appeal by the Tribunal vide judgment dated 13.11.2013. That the departmental appeal was not responded within the statutory period and hence the present service appeal on 7.4.2014.

That the appellant is entitled to service benefits rendered by him in the Police Department and that the previous service is countable towards the financial benefits accrued to the appellant during the course of service.

Points urged need consideration. Admit. Subject to deposit of security & process fee within 10 days, notices be issued to the respondents for written reply for 20.5.2015 before S.B at camp court A/Abad.

Respectfully Sheweth!

1. That, the appellant joined police department as a police constable and served the department for about more than seven years.

(Copy of the appointment order is annexed as annexure "A").

- 2. That, an advertisement was published by E.D.O Education Mansehra asking for application for the post of teachers and the appellant also submitted application for the appointment through proper channel. The application of the appellant was duly processed and after completion of all requisites formalities appellant was appointed as teacher.

(Copy of advertisement and appointment order are annexed as annexure "B" & "C" respectively).

- 3. That, after joining the new post as a teacher the appellant started his duties to best satisfaction of his superiors but while serving as such the appellant came to know that his previous service in police department was not being considered.
- 4. That, appellant submitted diverse application E.D.O Education for the redressal of his grievances but no action has been taken on said application.

5. That, appellant submitted an application before District Co-ordination Officer, Mansehra requesting him to pass an order for counting his previous service but no intimation has been conveyed by the appellate authorities with regard to the fate of his appeal.

(The copy of application is annexed as annexure "D").

6. That, later on, the appellant filed an appeal No.297/11 before this Honourable Court in which on 18.11.2013, the said appeal was converted into petition, before him and referred the same to the appellate authority (Respondent No.1) for disposal of the same on merits within three months. The appellant handed over the appeal to respondent No.1 but he refused to receive the same and return back the appeal to appellant on 25.03.2014.

(Attested copy of the appeal, order dated 18.11.2013 and envelope sent by the respondent No.1 are annexed as annexure "E, F & G" respectively).

7. That, the conduct of the respondent No.1 clearly shows that they are not interested in redressal of the grievance of the appellant, therefore, the instant appeal is being filed.
8. That, the appellant seeks indulgence of this Honourable Court on the following amongst other grounds:-

GROUNDS

- a. That, the reluctance rather the refusal of respondent No.2 to count his Service rendered in police department against the facts and law.
- b. That, in order to debar the appellant from the Service rendered by him in police department, respondent No.3 has showed cold shoulder in deciding the issue relating to his service.
- c. That, according to FR-26, the service so rendered in other departments shall be counted for the purpose of pension or other benefits.

- d. That, no where in the advertisement it has been mentioned that in case of appointment the previous service will not be counted in the absence of specific indication in the advertisement, it would tantamount to glaring violation of FR-26.
- e. That, the appellant has joined the new assignment/post through proper channel and of the acceptance of his application he was offered the post and started his duties, therefore, he cannot be deprived of the counting of his previous service on any consideration.
- f. That, neither respondent No.3 nor respondent No.4 has applied their independent mind to look into the grievance of appellant and appellant is initiated for the inclusion of his previous service but he deprived of such benefit on one or other pretext which shows malafide on the part of respondent No.3 and respondents No.4.
- g. That, previously in most of the cases education department has counted the previous service of candidates the proof of which should be produced at the time of arguments.

- h. That, the respondent No.1 while refusing from receiving the appeal of the petition has grossly violated the order passed by this Honourable Court and his act comes within the ambit of contempt of court.

It is, therefore, most humbly prayed and requested that respondent No.3 may kindly be directed to count the service rendered by appellant in police department.

Respected Sir,

Most respectfully, it is submitted for your kind and gracious honour that we have joined the education department, with the permission of Education & Police Departments.

Now we are servicing in different Schools as PST posts from approximately one and half (1 1/2) years and we are taking salary regularly. Now we are requesting that count our previous service with Education Department.

For this act of kindness we ever remain thankful and oblige.

Thanking you.

Appellant with counsel and Mr.Sakinullah ADO on behalf of respondents No.1 to 3 with Mr.Muhammad Tahir Aurangzeb, G.P for the respondents present. Representative of the respondents produced copies of service record of Ashiq Hussain appellant in the connected appeal, and preliminary arguments heard.

At the outset of arguments, it was pointed out to the learned counsel for the appellant that a service appeal lies to the Tribunal under section 4 of the NWFP (KPK) Service Tribunal Act, 1974 only when a civil servant is aggrieved by any final order, whether original or appellate, made by a departmental authority in respect of any of the terms and conditions of his service; but in this case neither there is any final order, original or appellate, nor a departmental appeal in terms of the above referred law has been made available by the appellant so far. The appellant has placed on file a simple joint application dated 13.10.2010 of the appellant and other appellants in the connected appeals to the DCO Manshehra for counting of previous police service, which was referred by the DCO to the EDO (Education); and when no action was taken on the application, this appeal was lodged for counting previous service of the appellant rendered by him in the Police Department.

The learned counsel, in view of the above situation, prayed for treating this appeal as a departmental appeal and referring the same to the appellate authority (now Director, E&SE, KPK, Peshawar) for disposal of the same on merits. In view of the predicament being faced by the appellant due to inaction on the part of the respondent-department on his application moved for the purpose of counting his previous service, the request of the learned counsel for the appellant is accepted and while treating service appeal as a departmental appeal, the same is referred to the appellate authority i.e. Director, E&SE, KPK, Peshawar for decision on merits within reasonable time but not later than three months of the receipt of this order; where-after, if the appellant still feels aggrieved of the order of the appellate authority, he may have recourse to the remedy available to him under the law. The appeal is disposed of accordingly, with no order as to costs. File be consigned to the record.

SERVICE APPEAL

REJOINDER ON BEHALF OF THE APPELLANT

Respectfully Sheweth!

PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS.

1. Para No.1 of the preliminary objection is incorrect. The appellant is an aggrieved person.
2. Para No.2 of the preliminary objection is incorrect. Appellant has got cause of action to file the instant appeal.
3. Para No.3 of the preliminary objection is incorrect. The appeal is maintainable in its present form.
4. Para No.4 of the preliminary objection is incorrect. The appellant has never concealed any fact from this Honourable tribunal.
5. Para No.5 of the preliminary objection is incorrect. The appeal is never time barred nor any thing has been pint pointed by the respondents in this regard.
6. Para No.6 of the preliminary objection is incorrect. Neither any malafide has been urged at the bar nor discernible from the record.

7. Para No.7 of the preliminary objection is incorrect. Estoppel does not attract to the appeal in hand.
8. Para No.8 of the preliminary objection is incorrect. Instant appeal has been filed in accordance with relevant law, rules and regulations.

FACTUAL OBJECTIONS.

1. Para No.1 of the comments needs no reply.
2. Para No.2 of the comments is incorrect. The appellant duly applied for the post in hand in accordance with relevant law, rules and regulations and also submitted NOC from the department with the application that's why the mother/police department relieved the appellant and after fulfilling the legal and codal formalities and requisite test/interview, the appellant was appointed in Education Department.
3. Para No.3 of the comments needs no reply. Whereas the para No.3 of the appeal is correct.
4. Para No.4 of the comments is incorrect whereas the para No.5 of the appeal is correct.
5. Para No.5 of the comments needs no reply. Whereas the para No.5 of the appeal is correct.
6. Para No.6 of the comments is incorrect whereas the para No.6 of the appeal is correct and all the relevant record has been annexed with the appeal by the appellant.

7. Para No.7 of the comments is incorrect. As the respondents' conducted was clearly that they are not going to redress the grievances of the appellant, therefore, the instant appeal has been filed by the appellant for redressal of his grievances which is liable to be accepted.
8. Para No.8 of the comments is incorrect. Whereas the para No.8 of the appeal is correct. Instant appeal has been filed in accordance with the relevant law, rules and regulations.

GROUNDS

- a. Para No.(a) of the grounds is incorrect. The appellant filed an appeal before the respondent No.1 according to rules and regulations which is available on the file as annexure "E" and it was the duty of the respondent No.1 to inform the respondent No.2 regarding the said appeal. Furthermore, as the appeal is well in the knowledge of the respondent No.2, therefore, he was duty bound to do the needful in accordance with law, rules and regulations but despite the knowledge of instant appeal, the respondent No.2 has not done any needful in this regard which amounts refusal.
- b. Para No.(b) of the grounds is incorrect. The appellant applied through proper channel and the appellant also annexed NOC from police department with his application for appointment that's why the Parent/police department relieved the services of the appellant and after due test/interview and fulfillment of legal and codal formalities, the appellant was posted in Education Department.

- c. In reply to Para No.(c) of the grounds it is submitted that the appellant has applied through proper channel with duly permission/NOC from his parent department. Similarly, other employees who applied through their parent department have been enjoying their benefits but the respondents are refusing the same to the appellant in a sheer malafide and discriminatory manner.
- d. Para No.(d) of the comments is incorrect whereas para No.(d) of the appeal is correct.
- e. Para No.(e) of the comments is incorrect whereas the para No.(e) of the appeal is correct. The appellant is entitled for the counting of period of police service.
- f. Para No.(f) of the comments is incorrect whereas the para No.(f) of the appeal is correct.
- g. In reply to para No.(g) of the comments it is submitted that the petitioner has fulfilled all the legal and codal formalities and deserves the counting of his period during which he served the police department like those employee who were accommodated by the respondents as law and constitution favour equal treatment with all the employees.

- h. Para No.(h) of the comments is incorrect whereas the para No.(h) of the appeal is correct.

It is, therefore, most humbly prayed that the appeal of the appellant may please be accepted and the respondent No.3 may kindly be directed to count the service rendered by appellant in police department.
