2. Brief facts of the case as per present service appeal are that the appellant was serving in Police Department. He was imposed major penalty of dismissal from service vide order dated 16.04.014, after availing of departmental remedy, the appellant filed Service Appeal No. 872/2014 which was partially accepted, the punishment of dismissal from service was set-aside and the same was converted into compulsory retirement from service with effect from 16.04.2014 vide detailed judgment dated 31.08.2016. After the aforesaid judgment of this Tribunal, the appellant went to the office of respondent No. 6 i.e Accountant General Khyber Pakhtunkhwa for drawing the amount of pensionary benefits but where the respondent No. 6 i.e Accountant General Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Peshawar told him that as per police record he (appellant) had already drawn amount of Rs. 418388/- of the period of his absence which was treated as leave without pay, therefore, the amount of Rs. 354194/- was deducted from his pension amount while remaining amount i.e 64194/- was stated to be deducted/recovered on monthly basis and in this respect the respondent No. 6 also issued a letter dated 28.02.2017 (wrongly mentioned as 28.02.2012) available on the record, therefore, the appellant filed departmental appeal against the letter dated 28.02.2017 for the pensionary benefits and against illegal recovery order to the Capital City Police Officer Peshawar on 17.03.2017 but the same was not responded hence, the present service appeal.

3. Respondents were summoned who contested the appeal by filing written reply/comments.

4. Learned counsel for the appellant contended that the appellant was serving in Police Department. It was further contended that the appellant was dismissed from service on certain allegations vide order dated 16.04.2014. It was further contended that after availing departmental remedy, the appellant filed service appeal which was partially accepted and the order of his dismissal from service was converted/modified into compulsory retirement from the date of his dismissal from service i.e 16.04.2014 vide judgment dated 31.08.2016. It was further contended that after the aforesaid judgment passed by this Tribunal in favour of the appellant, the appellant went to the office of respondent No. 6 i.e Accountant General Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Peshawar where it was told to the appellant that as per Police record, the appellant has drawn amount of Rs. 418388/- of the absence period which was treated as leave without pay, therefore, the respondent No. 6 deducted Rs. 354194/- from his pension amount while the remaining amount Rs. 64194/- was ordered to be recovered on monthly basis although the Tribunal has set-aside all the previous order and modified his dismissal from service into compulsory retirement, therefore, the appellant filed departmental appeal to Capital City Police Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Peshawar on 17.03.2017 but the same was not responded hence, the present service appeal. It was further contended that the respondent-department had illegally deducted Rs. 354194/- from his pension benefits through letter dated 28.02.2017 wrongly mentioned as 28.02.2012 and the remaining amount i.e 64194/- was also illegally ordered to be deducted from this pension, therefore, it was prayed that the appeal may be accepted.

5. On the other hand, learned District Attorney for the respondents opposed the contention of learned counsel for the appellant and contended that the appellant remained absent from duty during his service. It was further contended that the Police Department had furnished detail record to the Accountant General Khyber Pakhtunkhwa regarding his absence period which was treated by the competent authority as leave without pay, therefore, it was vehemently contended that the aforesaid amount was rightly deducted from the appellant and prayed for dismissal of appeal.

6. Perusal of the record reveals that the appellant was serving in Police Department. He was dismissed from service vide order dated 16.04.2014. The record further reveals that after availing the departmental remedy, the appellant filed Service Appeal No. 872/2014 which was partially accepted and order of dismissal from service was modified into compulsory retirement from the date of dismissal i.e from 16.04.2014 vide judgment dated 31.08.2016. The record further reveals that after the aforesaid judgment, the appellant approached the office of respondent No. 6 Accountant General for pensionary benefits where a letter dated 28.02.2017 wrongly mentioned as 28.02.2012 available on record was issued to the appellant whereby he was stated that he has illegally drawn Rs. 418388/- for the absence period which was treated as leave without pay therefore, Rs. 354194/- was deducted from his pension amount while the remaining amount Rs. 64194/- was stated to be recovered on monthly basis, therefore, the appellant filed departmental appeal against the alleged illegal recovery through letter dated 28.02.2017 but the same was not decided. On one hand, the appellant has claimed that he never remained absent and the Service Tribunal has already decided the service appeal in his favour whereby his dismissal order from service was modified into compulsory retirement from the date of his dismissal, therefore, the respondent-department has illegally deducted the aforesaid amount from his pension while on the other hand it is stance of the respondent-department that the appellant remained absent from duty and the respondent No. 6 i.e Accountant General Khyber Pakhtunkhwa has rightly deducted the aforesaid amount from his pension on the basis of record furnished by the Police Department, therefore, we deem it appropriate to direct the departmental authority i.e Capital City Police Officer Peshawar to decide the departmental appeal of the appellant through speaking order already preferred by him on 17.03.2017 after going to the whole record within a period of 90 days from the date of receipt of copy of this judgment. The appeal is disposed of accordingly. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.
