Judgment.
BEFORE PESHAWAR HIGH COURT
PESHAWAR.

Judicial Department.

Writ Petition 3081-P of 2012.

Inayatullah Khan & others.....Petitioners.

Vs

Govt. of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa through Chief Secretary & others.....Respondents

Date of hearing.....20th June, 2019..... Adversely.

Petitioner(s) by M/S Ghulam Nabi & Co. Barrister Niaz Tajmul Shah

WAOAR AHMAD SETH, CJ: - Through this single judgment / order this Court intend to decide the instant as well as connected writ petition bearing No.1182-P of 2018, being identical in nature.

2. In essence the case of petitioners is that, they being the employees of respondents-department were in receipt of advance increment on account of Higher Education, in light of judgments of this Court / apex Court, however, on promulgation of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Act No. IX of 2012, i.e. Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Cessation of Payment of Arrears on Advance Increments on Higher Education Qualification Act, 2012, the said benefit was curtailed, hence the instant writ petition.

3. We have heard learned counsel for the parties and available record gone through.

4. At the very outset, learned counsel representing the petitioners while producing judgment dated 8th June, 2017, reported as 2018 PLC (C.S) 174, rendered in writ petition bearing No. 913-P of 2014, states that this Court in the said petition has thoroughly dealt the matter and declared the Act No. IX of 2012, null and void to the extent of section-2 its retrospectivity and struck down the same from the Act, requested for disposal of the writ petition in view of said judgment. Learned AAG present in Court alongwith departmental representative on notice though controverted the stance, but could make reasonable grounds in dissent.

5. Before going to the merits of the case, it is worth mentioning to go through the comments, so filed by the respondents. In para-7 of the comments (on facts) they contended that Government has already discontinued the said scheme since 2001 as mentioned in the said Act No. IX of 2012, and that the law helps the diligent and not indolent. If a person has been negligent in prosecuting his remedy / rights before the proper forum well in time, he is not entitled to indulgence of Court. The petitioners kept mum till decades on payment of claimed increments. In para-9, they further stated that Government had already discontinued the scheme of the advance increments on acquiring higher qualification since 27.10.2001 and the present petitioners did not objected / challenged the same before any proper legal forum, since the promulgation of Ordinance on 27.3.2012, enacted by the Provincial Government on 15.5.2012. The stance so taken by the respondents-departments in their comments on the face of record suggests they intentionally avoid to give benefits to petitioners on same footings, as given to others, which is in contravention with the plethora of judgments of apex Court whereby it was repeated held that Once a judicial determination, be it of a point of fact or of a point of law, has been made and if such a determination covers not only the ones litigating before the courts but some others also, then the dictates of justice would command that the benefits accruing from such a determination should not be restricted only to the litigating parties but should be extended even to those who had not indulged in litigation unless there were some extraordinary un-exceptionable reasons to the contrary and that all powers, including the powers inherent in the courts be invoked for the purpose—Such would not only ensure justice for all but would also have the effect of eliminating un-necessary litigation.

6. On merits, perusal of available record would depict that on the same cause of action / grounds other employees of respondents-department had filed several petitions wherein this court through consolidated judgment dated 8.6.2017, rendered in writ petition No. 913-P of 2014, has dealt the matter elaborately by discussing each and every aspect of the case in reference to the earlier judgments, apex Court on account of cause accrued to the petitioners-employees due to Notification No. FD (PRC) 1-1/89 dated 11.8.1991. This Court through above judgments had declared the notification dated 3.1.2009, discriminatory and violative of law, whereby those who were entitled but have not availed the facilities of advance increments; were refused, followed by Act No. IX of 2012, to the extent of section-2, therefore, the present petitioners of the instant writ petition as well as connected writ petitions being at par with that of earlier petitioners of writ petitioners need alike treatment.

7. For the reasons recorded hereinabove, this and the connected writ petitions are allowed in terms of identical writ petition quoted above, reported as 2018 PLC (C.S) 174 by
