- B. That respondents have extended benefits of Presidential Order dated 03.07.2009 issued by the President of Pakistan before and after devolution of employees to the province through 18th Amendment, so not considering the appellant to higher grade under the Presidential Order by the respondents, is illegal, without lawful authority and jurisdiction.
- C. That it is fundamental right of every citizen to enjoy the equal protection of law and to be treated in accordance with law. The respondents are duty bound to consider the appellant to next higher grade under the Presidential Order, such action of the respondents will amount to violation of Artic 4 & 9 of the Constitution of Pakistan, 1973.

So, action of the respondents by not extending the said benefit to the appellant being similarly placed persons, is illegal, void and based on discriminatory treatment, which is violation of Article 25 of the Constitution of Pakistan, 1973.

- E. That it is settled principle of law that no one should be suffered by the act of public functionaries. The appellant have been deprived from the benefits of Presidential Order due to inactiveness of the respondents.
- F. That the appellant has completed 10 years service on 08.05.2016, who is entitled to be promoted to the next higher grade under Presidential Order, so respondents are bound to extend the said benefits to him.
- G. That Presidential Order dated 03.07.2009 issued by the President of Pakistan is neither withdrawn, altered, replaced or changed, which is still in field. The respondents are required under the law to consider the appellant under the Presidential Order since his entitlement.
- H. That 18th Amendment was passed on 28.04.2010 and the appellant has become a rolling stone by the respondents. Such actions of respondents have deprived the appellant from his valuable rights, accrued to him since his entitlement, under Presidential Order

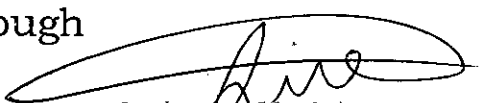

- I. That any other ground may be taken at the time of arguments, with the kind permission of this Honourable Court.

It is, therefore, respectfully prayed that on acceptance of this appeal, the order dated 08/09/2016 may please be set aside and the respondents may please be directed to consider the appellant for promotion to next higher grade under the Presidential Order dt.03.07.2009 with all consequential benefits since their entitlement from their respective dates, being similarly placed persons under similarly placed circumstances.

WRIT PETITION UNDER ARTICLE 199
OF THE CONSTITUTION OF ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF PAKISTAN, 1973

Respectfully Sheweth:

1. That addresses of the parties as given in the heading above are sufficient for affecting service upon the respondents.
2. That petitioners were appointed under Directorate General of Special Education, Islamabad after fulfillment of all codal formalities by Federal Public Service Commission on 08.05.2006, 21.06.2003, 17.05.2004, 24.04.2006, 17.11.2005, 27.04.2006 respectively, since then, they are performing their duties upto entire satisfaction of their superior and no complaint whatsoever has been made against them. (Copy of appointment orders are Annexure "A").
3. That a Presidential Order was issued by the President of Pakistan vide order dated 03.07.2009 according to which those employees of Special Education Centers, who have completed their 10 years of service in the current grade be promoted in the next higher grade. (Copy of Presidential Order dated 03.07.2009 is Annexure "B").
4. That in the light of Presidential Order, a number of employees who were entitled for the said benefit, were promoted before devolution of ministry to the province through various orders dated 21.09.2010, 24.12.2010 and 21.01.2011 issued by the respondents. (Copies of order dated 21.09.2010, 24.12.2010 and 21.01.2011 are attached as Annexure "C, D & E").

5. That after devolution of employees through 13th Amendment, all employees have been transferred to province through Capital Administration & Development Division. It is pertinent to mention here that the benefits of Presidential Order dated 03.07.2009 were also extended to the employees by respondent No.1 vide order dated 07.02.2012. (Copy of order dated 07.02.2012 is attached as Annexure "F").

6. That after completion of 10 years service, the petitioners approached respondent No.1 for redressal of their grievances through applications, which was turned down with the direction to approach an appropriate forum under the law. (Copy of order dated 25.09.2014 is attached as Annexure "G").

7. That thereafter, the petitioners approached respondent No.6 through applications dated 09.05.2016, which was disposed-off with the following observation:

"Hence the status of devolved employees is not determined, therefore, the employees may wait till the permanent absorption which is in pipeline and under consideration with Provincial Government after amendment in Civil Servants Act, 1973"

(Copy of order dt.08.09.2016 is Annexure "H").

17

8. That feeling aggrieved from the said order, the petitioners having no other adequate remedy, invoke the extraordinary jurisdiction of this Honourable Court, inter alia, on the following grounds:

GROUND S:

- A. That the order dated 08.09.2016 passed by respondent No.6, is against law and record of the case, hence not tenable.
- B. That respondents have extended benefits of Presidential Order dated 03.07.2009 issued by the President of Pakistan before and after devolution of employees to the province through 18th Amendment, so not considering the petitioners to higher grade under the Presidential Order by the respondents, is illegal, without lawful authority and jurisdiction.
- C. That it is fundamental right of every citizen to enjoy the equal protection of law and to be treated in accordance with law. The respondents are duty bound to consider the petitioners to next higher grade under the Presidential Order, such action of the respondents will amount to violation of Artic 4 & 9 of the Constitution of Pakistan, 1973.
- D. That respondents have extended the benefits of Presidential Order to other employees of the same department, which is evident from various orders dated 21.09.2016, 24.12.2010, 08.01.2011 and 07.01.2012. The petitioners entitled and deserve the same treatment. So, action of the respondents by not extending the said benefit to the petitioners being similarly placed persons, is illegally, void and based on discriminatory treatment, which is violation of Article 25 of the Constitution of Pakistan, 1973.

- E. That it is settled principle of law that no one should be suffered by the act of public functionaries. The petitioners have been deprived from the benefits of Presidential Order due to inactiveness of the respondents.
- F. That the petitioners have completed 10 years service on 08.05.2016, who are entitled to be promoted to the next higher grade under Presidential Order, so respondents are bound to extend the said benefits to them.
- G. That Presidential Order dated 03.07.2009 issued by the President of Pakistan is neither withdrawn, altered, replaced or changed, which is still in field. The respondents are required under the law to consider the petitioners under the Presidential Order since their entitlement.
- H. That 18th Amendment was passed on 28.04.2010 and the petitioner have become a rolling stone by the respondents. Such actions of respondents have deprived the petitioners from their valuable rights, accrued to them since their entitlement, under Presidential Order
- I. That any other ground may be taken at the time of arguments, with the kind permission of this Honourable Court.

It is, therefore, respectfully prayed that on acceptance of this writ petition, an appropriate writ may please be issued to the respondents to consider the petitioners for promotion to next higher grade under the Presidential Order dt.03.07.2009 with all consequential benefits since their entitlement from their respective dates, being similarly placed persons under similarly placed circumstances.

Any other remedy, which is not specifically asked for, but deemed appropriate according to circumstances of the case, may also be granted.

2. Succinctly stated facts are that the petitioners in all the three petitions were appointed on different posts in the Directorate General of Special education Islamabad through Federal Public Service Commission, and that after the 18th Amendment in the

3. At the very outset, Mr. Mansoor Tariq, the learned Attorney General, raised the question of maintainability of the petitions and stated that the petitioners being civil servants cannot seek the redressal of their grievance through writ petitions.

In turn, when the learned counsel for the petitioners was confronted with the notifications regarding the appointments of the petitioners from which it is abundantly clear that the petitioners are civil servants and under the law, the remedy for them lies before the learned Service Tribunal, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, he was not in a position to rebut the legal position.

4. In view of the fact that the jurisdiction of this court is specifically barred under Article 212 (2) of the Constitution of the Islamic republic of Pakistan in the matters which purely relate to the terms and conditions of service, the instant petition along with the two connected writ petitions being both not entertainable and maintainable are dismissed.
