

39-A (2) 30

29.5.2004. The affectees preferred departmental appeals without success and hence filed appeals before the learned NWFP Service Tribunal.

2. The learned Tribunal vide judgment dated 20.5.2006 deferred all the disputed promotions and remanded the case to the department. The civil servants as well as the Government of NWFP have filed these petitions seeking leave to appeal from the judgment aforesaid.

3. The operative part of the impugned judgment reads as follows:-

8. The Tribunal is of the firm view that until and unless the rules are not revised in light of Finance Department circular letter dated 3.11.1983, the issue of seniority and subsequent promotion, grievances of the stenographers cadre vis-à-vis Assistant to the post of Superintendent cannot be resolved.

9. The case is therefore, remanded to the respondent department with the direction to make new rules in light of the changed position as mentioned in the Finance Department letter dated 3.11.1983 within 3 months of the receipt of this judgment. The impugned promotion order/Notification dated 29.5.2004 is set aside while respondents are directed to defer the promotion of all the affectees till the new rules are notified."

4. The main grievance of the Government is that the learned Tribunal was supposed to have decided the matter in the light of the terms no jurisdiction at all to direct the Government to amend rules as also the terms and conditions of service. On the other hand, the petitioners/civil servants are aggrieved to the effect that in the wake of the prevailing situation, the learned Tribunal could have decided the fate of the Stenographers, in case it had adverted to the merits of the case.

5. Both the assertions are not without force. Even otherwise, it is quite apparent that the learned Tribunal has not discussed the merits of the case and has resorted to a conclusion that could not be arrived at. Learned counsel for the parties, during arguments, were unanimous on the point that the learned Tribunal ought to have decided the appeals on merits.

6. Consequently, all the petitions after conversion into appeals are accepted. the impugned judgment dated 20.5.2006 is set aside and the cases are remanded to the learned Tribunal to decide the same on merits. The status quo however, is to be maintained till then. As the matter of promotion is involved, the Tribunal shall decide the cases within one month from the receipt of this order.
