JUDGMENT

Mr. ATIQ UR REHMAN WAZIR MEMBER (E): - This judgment shall dispose of the instant service appeal as well as connected Service Appeal bearing No. 1139/2018 titled: "Farmani Gul Versus Provincial Police Officer, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar and two others", Service Appeal bearing No. 1141/2018 titled "Asghar Khan Versus Provincial Police Officer, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar and two others", Service Appeal bearing No. 1142/2018 titled "Jehanzeb Khan Versus Provincial Police Officer, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar and two others", Service Appeal bearing No. 1143/2018 titled "Tilawat Shah Versus Provincial Police Officer, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar and two others", and Service Appeal bearing No. 1144/2018 titled "Niaz ullah Versus Provincial Police Officer, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar and two others", as similar question of law and facts are involved therein.

Peshawar

02. Brief facts of the case are that the appellant was promoted as officiating sub inspector (SI) along with his other colleagues on 16-04-2014. His other colleagues as well as his juniors were confirmed as SI vide order dated 29-09-2017 and their names were also included in list F, but the appellant was not confirmed. Feeling aggrieved, the appellant filed departmental appeal, which was rejected vide order dated 30-07-2018. The appellant filed the instant service appeal with prayers that the impugned order dated 30-07-2018 may be set aside and the appellant may be confirmed as SI with effect from 29-09-2017 and name of the appellant may be brought on list F with all back benefits including seniority.

03. Written reply/comments were submitted by respondents.

04. Arguments heard and record perused.

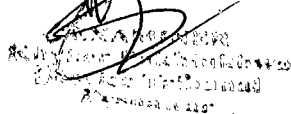

05. Learned counsel for the appellant has contended that the appellant was not confirmed as SI along with his colleagues due to the reason that during the tenure as officiating sub inspector, he did not serve in independent charge of a police station, a notified police post or as in-charge investigation of a police station or in counter terrorism department. Learned counsel for the appellant further contended that such postings were beyond control of the appellant, whereas the appellant requested repeatedly for his posting on such positions in order to meet the requirements for confirmation as SI, but no heed was paid to this requests. Learned counsel for the appellant added that other colleagues and juniors of the appellant were posted on the above mentioned posts, which were required for confirmation as SI, but the appellant was denied such postings, thus the appellant was discriminated, which is violation of Article 25 of Constitution of

APPROVED

Pakistan. Learned counsel for the appellant further added that according to Police Rules 13:18, it was the legal right of the appellant to be confirmed as SI after lapse of two years, but in case of appellant, the said rules have not been observed; that similar nature cases have already been accepted by this Tribunal and the appellant is also entitled to same relief under the principles of equity and consistency. Reliance was placed on CP No. 538-P of 2003, Service Appeal No. 1602/2010, Service Appeal No. 1450/2013, Service Appeal No. 1227/2013, Service Appeal No. 1021/2015 and Service Appeal No. 271/2018. Learned counsel for the appellant explained that dictates of justice and rule of good governance demand that the benefits of a decision be extended to other civil servants also, who may not be parties to that litigation, instead of compelling them to approach the Tribunal or any other legal forum. Reliance was placed on 2009 SCMR 1. Learned counsel for the appellant added that the appellant has not been treated in accordance with law and rule and was deprived of his legal rights in arbitrary and illegal manner. On the question of limitation, learned counsel for the appellant further added that in matter of promotion, seniority, pay and other emoluments, limitation would not foreclose his right accrued to him. Reliance was placed on 2002 PLC (CS) 1388, 2009 PLC (CS) 178 and 1999 SCMR 880. Learned counsel for the appellant prayed that on acceptance of this appeal, the impugned order dated 30-07-2018 may be set aside and the appellant may be confirmed as SI from due date, the date when his colleagues/juniors were confirmed with further request that name of the appellant may be brought on list F with all back benefits including seniority.

06. Learned Assistant Advocate General appeared on behalf of official respondents have contended that confirmation in the rank of SI is subject to fulfillment of rule 13:10(2) and standing order issued by the provincial police officer from time to time; that the appellant is required to qualify the requisite criteria for confirmation in the rank of SI. Learned Assistant Advocate General further contended that departmental appeal of the appellant was thoroughly processed and turned down on sound and plausible grounds to avoid injustice. Learned Assistant Advocate General added that other colleagues/ juniors of the appellant were promoted after fulfilling the requisite criteria. Learned Assistant Advocate General further added that posting/transfer on independent position are made after examining professional skills and ability of suitable officers. Learned Assistant Advocate General prayed that the appellant was treated in accordance with law and his appeal being devoid of merit may be dismissed.

07. We have heard learned counsel for the parties and have perused the record. Record reveals that the only reason for non-confirmation of the appellant as SI was that the appellant had not fulfilled the criteria envisaged in 13:10(2) of Police Rules, 1934, which is reproduced as under:

"No Sub-Inspector shall be confirmed in substantial vacancy unless he has been tested for a year of an officiating Sub-Inspector in independent charge of a Police Station, a notified police post, or as in-charge investigation of a police station or in counter terrorism department."

To this effect the worthy Apex Court as well as this Tribunal, in numerous judgments have held that condition of postings as envisaged in the rule ibid, as impediment in the way of confirmation as SI was not attributable to the appellant because postings were beyond control of the appellant, which powers rests with the competent authority and subordinate officials cannot be punished for such administrative lapses on part of the relevant authority. We have observed that in the instant case, the appellant had requested several times for his posting against such post, but his request was not acceded to, hence depriving him from being confirmed in the rank of SI would tantamount to his deprivation from further progression, which was not justified. It was also noted that respondents totally ignore Rule-13:18 of Police Rules, 1934, wherein it is laid down that all police officers promoted in rank shall be on probation for two years, provided that the appointing authority may, by a special order in each case, permit periods of officiating service to count towards a period of probation. On the conclusion of probation period a report shall be rendered to the authority empowered to confirm the promotion who shall either confirm the officer or revert him.

08. In view of the foregoing discussion, we are of the considered opinion that case of the appellant is similar in nature with the cases already decided by this Tribunal as well as by the apex court, as referred to by counsel of the appellant. For the reasons, we are inclined to accept the present appeal with directions to the respondents to confirm the appellant as SI from the date when his other colleagues were confirmed, as well as to bring his name on list F and place him in due place in the seniority list. The appellant is also held entitled to all consequential benefits, if any. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to record room.
