Brief facts as narrated in the memo of appeal are that the appellant 03. was initially appointed as Warder in the Prison Department in the year, 2007. While posted at District Jail Lakki Marwat on 24.05.2013, an incident of escape of understrial prisoners took-place due to which the appellant was proceeded against departmentally and was ultimately awarded with major punishment of removal from service vide order dated 17.03.2014. Feeling aggrieved, the appellant filed departmental appeal followed by Service Appeal No. 880/2014 before this Tribunal, which was accepted vide judgment dated 01-03-2018 and the appellant was re-instated in service by converting major penalty into minor penalty of withholding of three increments for three years. Benefits of the period in which the appellants remained out of service were also allowed subject to the condition if they were not gainfully employed during the period. The appellant submitted affidavit to the respondents to the effect that he never remained in gainful employment during the period he remained out of service. Respondent No. 3 though reinstated the appellant in service vide order dated 04.04.2018 but treated the intervening period as extraordinary leave without pay. After exhausting departmental remedy, the appellant filed the instant service appeal with the prayer that on acceptance of the appeal, the order dated 04.04.2014 to the extent of treating the intervening period as 'eave without pay may be set aside and the appellant may be allowed the back benefits of service.

04. Learned counsel for the appellant has contended that the appellant has not been treated in accordance with law; that the appellant was reinstated in service by orders of this tribunal and back benefits were also allowed and the appellant also submitted affidavit to the effect that he was not gauafully employed anywhere; that the respondent should have considered the affidavit submitted by him to this effect, which however was not considered; that the appellant remained out of service due to the penalty which was subsequently set aside by this Tribunal, hence he is entitled to all back benefits.

05. Learned Deputy District Attorney appearing on behalf of the respondents while rebutting the arguments of learned counsel for the appellant, argued that the enquiry proceedings conducted were strictly in accordance with law. The appellant was given ample opportunity to defend himself but he could not prove his innocence. He further argued that in pursuance to the directions given in the judgment dated 01.03.2018 the appellant was reinstated into service vide order dated 04.04.2018, however, the intervening period was treated as Extra-ordinary leave without pay because the department on the basis of well-settled principle "No Work No Pay", could not pay salary to the appellant for the period during which he did not-perform his duty and requested for dismissal of the appeal with cost.

07. This Tribunal vide judgment dated 01-03-2018 has very clearly reinstated the appellant as well as made him entitled for back benefits of the intervening period, subject to the condition if he was not gainfully employed elsewhere. The respondents re-instated him in service but the intervening period was treated as leave without pay, inspite of the fact the appellant had submitted affidavít to the effect that he was not gainfully employed anywhere, but such benefits were refused to the appellant, which however was not warranted. Now the point remains for determination is that during the period in question the appellant remained jobless or otherwise.
