JUDGMENT

ROZINA REHMAN, MEMBER (J): The relevant facts leading to filing of instant appeal are that appellant was working on the post of Senior Primary School Teacher (SPST) in GPS Sadabahar, Gujrat. A complaint was filed against the appellant and on the strength of that complaint, appellant was transferred to GPS Peshkand. He filed an application seeking cancellation of that transfer order which application was accepted and his transfer order was withdrawn. An inquiry was conducted against him on the strength of the aforementioned complaint and it was on 11.07.2018 when appellant was compulsorily retired from service. He filed departmental appeal which was rejected. He then filed the instant service appeal. In the meanwhile, he had also filed an application with a request for de-novo inquiry which was honored and de-novo inquiry was conducted. He was reinstated into service but the intervening period w.e.f 11.07.2018 to 02.07.2019 was treated as leave without pay. He, therefore, filed departmental appeal for the grant of arrears which was not responded to. As the present appeal had been filed with the prayer for reinstatement with all back benefits but he was reinstated during the pendency of the instant appeal, therefore he filed an application seeking amendment in the instant appeal which was allowed by this Tribunal.

2. We have heard Taimur Ali Khan Advocate for appellant and Naseer ud Din Shah, learned Assistant Advocate General for the respondents and have gone through the record and the proceedings of the case in minute particulars.

3. Taimur Ali Khan Advocate, learned counsel appearing on behalf of appellant, inter-alia, submitted that the order of the authority vide which period w.e.f 11.07.2018 to 02.07.2019 was treated as leave without pay is against law, facts and norms of justice and liable to be modified to the extent that the entire period may be treated on full pay with all back benefits. It was further argued that the Inquiry Officer submitted detailed report in de-novo proceedings which report favors the appellant but the same was not taken into consideration and the appellant was deprived from his legal rights, he therefore, submitted that there remains no ground to deprive the appellant from full pay for the period mentioned above.

4. Conversely learned AAG submitted that the appellant was treated according to law and was given full opportunity of personal hearing. He contended that proper regular inquiry was conducted against appellant and that the allegations of misconduct were proved against the appellant and lastly, it was argued that the SDEO (M) visited the School of the appellant as the PTC Chairman made complaint against the appellant regarding non-performance of duty/absenteeism, therefore, proper regular inquiry was conducted and that he was never condemned unheard as he was given full and proper opportunity of his defense.

5. From the record, it is evident that a complaint was filed against the appellant by the Members of PTC, wherein, different allegations were leveled against appellant. He was transferred to GPS Peshkand on 12.01.2018 on the strength of this complaint. He then submitted an application seeking cancellation of the transfer order with a request for transfer to a suitable place keeping in view his enmity. His application was considered and his transfer order was withdrawn on 14.02.2018 by the DEO (Male), Mardan. An Inquiry Officer was nominated to conduct inquiry, who recommended his compulsory retirement vide report dated 15.02.2018, where-after, show cause notice was issued to the appellant on 05.05.2018. It was on 11.07.2018 when major penalty of compulsory retirement from service was imposed upon appellant by District Education Officer (Male), Mardan. He preferred departmental appeal which was rejected on 19.09.2018, where-after, the present service appeal was filed. During the pendency of present service, another application was submitted by the appellant for de-novo inquiry which was allowed and Principal GHS Bakhshali, Mardan was appointed as Inquiry Officer who conducted inquiry and submitted his report. All the allegations leveled against the appellant were declared baseless and accordingly, he was reinstated in service w.e.f 03.07.2019 and was adjusted at GMPS Sadabahar on the basis of STR, however, the intervening period w.e.f 11.07.2018 to 02.07.2019 was treated as leave without pay which order of the authority is not in accordance with law. As discussed earlier that de-novo inquiry was conducted, proper report was submitted by the enquiry officer and on the strength of inquiry report, appellant was reinstated into service. Major penalty of compulsory retirement from service had been imposed upon appellant by the authority and there was no fault of the appellant.

6. The preceding discussion vividly transpires that appellant was not treated in accordance with law and he made out a case for indulgence of this Tribunal, therefore, he is entitled to all back benefits for the intervening period w.e.f 11.07.2018 to 02.07.2019. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.
