Counsel for the appellant present. Preliminary arguments heard and case file perused. Learned counsel for the appellant argued that in pursuance of the judgment of the Tribunal dated 15.08.2017 de-novo enquiry was conducted and as a consequence thereof he was exonerated of the charges leveled against him vide order dated 10.10.2018. As a result of dismissal from service his name was removed from the seniority list of Inspectors. He submitted a departmental representation on 16.04.2018 for inclusion of his name in the seniority list of Inspectors but to no avail. The appellant has not been treated according to law and rules, rather was deprived of his legitimate right of including his name in the relevant seniority list.

10/5/18 On acceptance of the instant service appeal the Respondents may please be directed to correct the impugned seniority list and to include the name of appellant at proper position i.e. Serial No 109 in seniority list "F" of inspector and Sub Inspector.

Any other remedy which this august tribunal deems fit and appropriate may also be awarded in the favour of the appellant.

Respectfully Sheweth:-

1. That the appellant is rendering his services in Police Department from the last Thirty Six year and due to his enthusiastic and sprightliness performance promoted to the Rank of Inspector in 2015. (Copy of the promotion list is attached as Annexure A)
2. That the appellant was removed from his service on the bases of so called allegation on dated 23.9.2015.
3. That the appellant finally filed the service appeal before the worthy chairman service tribunal by impugning the order dated 23.9.2015 and later on through the amended appeal No 19/2016 the order dated 28.1.2016 was also challenged.
4. That appeal was heard by the tribunal and after hearing the contention of both the parties the Worthy Tribunal was please enough to reinstate the appellant for the purpose of denovo inquiry with in sixty days it was further held by the tribunal that failing which the appellant will be assumed to be reinstated in service with all back benefits. (Copy of the judgment of the Tribunal is attached as Annexure B)
5. That as the judgment of this August tribunal was not complied in its true letter in spirit as the inquiry was not concluded with in the period of sixty days therefore the appellant filed the execution petition for the implementation of the judgment of this August Tribunal dated 15/8/2017.

6. That during the pendency of the execution proceedings the denovo inquiry was held in the light of the judgment of the Worthy Service Tribunal and after conducting a brief inquiry by examining various witnesses the appellant was found innocent and hence exonerated from all the charges leveled against him. (Copy of the order is attached as Annexure "C")
7. That thereafter the appellant filed the departmental representation before the respondents for inclusion of his name in the seniority list of the Inspectors but despite passing the statutory period of Ninety days the grievance of the appellant could not be addressed. (Copy of the representation alongwith revised seniority list 'F' are attached as annexure D & E)
8. That now the appellant has approached this august Tribunal and seeks the inclusion of his name in the seniority list of inspectors on the following grounds amongst other.

Grounds:-

- A) That the act of the respondents is highly against the law and protected rights of the appellant enshrined under the constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan 1973.

- B) That the respondents exonerated the appellant and reinstated him in service with all back benefits but despite their own order the name of appellant was not included in the seniority list of the inspectors.
- C) That it is pertinent to mention here that the respondents have nominated and sent for the advance course of DSP which are more junior than the appellant.
- D) That not responding on the departmental appeal within the statutory period of ninety days and not including the name of the appellant in the seniority list of inspectors is against the law, illegal and thus calling for interference of this august Tribunal.
- E) That according to section 8 of the Civil Servant Act 1973 and section 17 of APT rules 1989" it is the legal right of every civil servant to properly be placed in seniority list according to his seniority position but the same benefit was not extended to the appellant which is the violation of law and rules.
- F) That the appellant was not treated according to the law and rules and has been deprived of his legal right of seniority in an arbitrary manner without any fault on his part.
- G) That the appellant seeks permission to advance any other grounds and proofs at the time of hearing.

It is therefore most humbly prayed that the appeal of the appellant may kindly be accepted as prayed for.

ATTESTEDFACTS

2. The appellant was proceeded against departmentally on the basis of a complaint lodged by one of his subordinate namely Saifullah, ASI on 15.06.2015. Thereafter an enquiry was conducted without any statement of allegation and charge sheet. The Enquiry Officer submitted his report on 27.07.2015 in which he proposed the penalty of dismissal from service after conducting proper enquiry. But the authority instead of conducting proper enquiry issued a show cause notice dated 1.09.2015 by adding the reasons that in view of preliminary enquiry report before him there was no need of any proper enquiry. Thereafter the reply was submitted by the appellant and finally the impugned order was passed on 23.09.2015 by imposing major penalty of removal from service. Against this the appellant filed departmental appeal on 06.10.2015 and when the same was not responded to, the appellant filed the present appeal on 04.01.2016 in the meantime the departmental appeal was rejected on 28.01.2016 and thereafter appellant filed amended appeal on 26.02.2016.

ARGUMENTS

3. The learned counsel for the appellant argued that no regular enquiry was ordered or held. That no charge sheet or statement of allegations were issued to the appellant. That the impugned order is based on enquiry report which was a fact finding enquiry report. That the impugned order is not sustainable in the eyes of law.

4. On the other hand, the learned Assistant A.G. argued that the antecedents of the appellant show that he was compulsorily retired on a previous occasion. That a complaint was filed by one of his subordinates fully disclosing the charges against the appellant. That the fact finding enquiry was conducted in the matter. That the appeal was rejected by the appellate authority after placing the case before a board. That the appeal is liable to be dismissed. Learned AAG also argued that the appeal to the departmental authority is time barred and no date of appeal is mentioned on the departmental appeal.

CONCLUSION.

5. Admittedly no formal enquiry was conducted though it is the requirement of law and especially when the fact finding enquiry report also recommended that a proper enquiry should be conducted. That the formal enquiry could be dispensed with if such material was available before the authority which needed no further proof but in the present case the only reason given by the authority for dispensing with the regular enquiry was what had been stated in the complaint or in the preliminary enquiry report. The reasons are not based on any record which is undisputed or proved. Regardless of the proof or otherwise of the charges, it was his right to have been given sufficient opportunity of hearing and other elements of due process. The authority in the impugned order has again referred to finding in the preliminary enquiry report which finding is not allowed to be taken into consideration under the law as the requirement of due process as mentioned above has not been fulfilled while conducting the preliminary enquiry. It is correct that there is no date on the departmental appeal but the order of appellate authority rejecting the departmental appeal does not contain any reference to limitation rather the same has been dismissed on merits. And when any departmental appeal is dismissed on merits then this Tribunal has got no jurisdiction to enter into the question of limitation qua the departmental appeal.

ATTESTED

6. As a nutshell of the above discussion this Tribunal reaches the conclusion that it was incumbent on the department to have conducted proper enquiry in the circumstances of the case. This Tribunal, therefore, by accepting the present appeal directs the respondent-department to conduct de-novo enquiry in accordance with law within a period of 60 days after receipt of this judgment. Failing which the appellant shall be deemed to have been reinstated into service. The matter of benefits of the intervening period shall be subject to the outcome of de-novo enquiry. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.

No. S/ 144 /18 dated Peshawar, the 10 /10 /2018.

ORDER

This order is passed in the de-novo enquiry proceedings initiated against Naseem Hayat Inspector (herein after referred to only as accused officer) in compliance with judgment of the Service Tribunal dated 15.08.2017, passed in Service Appeal No. 19/2016. The brief, yet relevant, facts of the case are that accused officer while posted as SHO Police Station Khwaja Was, District Charsadda was removed from service vide order dated 23.09.2015 of Commandant FRP Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar on charges of avoiding registration of the case against the criminals who allegedly made firing on Police party under the Command of accused officer while conducting raid for the arrest of criminals. The fire shots of criminal hit the front screen of office vehicle and its broken pieces caused injuries to the driver Constable. He allegedly arrested the relatives of the criminals but released them after receipt of illegal gratification. He was reportedly in league with smugglers. His departmental appeal was rejected vide order dated 28.01.2016.

Accused officer filed Service Appeal before Service Tribunal Khyber Pakhtunkhwa which was contested and the Service Tribunal remanded the case for de-novo enquiry proceedings. He was reinstated in service for the purposes of de-novo enquiry proceedings vide order No. S/5329-40/17 dated 29.08.2017. Fresh Charge Sheet was issued to accused officer and enquiry committee comprising of Imran Malik AIG and Hukam Khan DSP of Enquiry & Inspector CPO, Peshawar was appointed for scrutinizing the conduct of accused officer with reference to the charges leveled against him.

The enquiry committee conducted enquiry and examined the Police Constables present with the accused officer during the alleged raid on the houses of the criminals. The committee recommended that the allegations leveled against the accused officer could not be proved, therefore, the charge sheet may be dropped and accused officer may be reinstated in service.

The enquiry committee has made recommendations in unequivocal terms of exoneration of the accused officer, therefore, he is exonerated from the charges leveled against him. The intervening period may be considered as leave of the kind due.
