- 6) That petitioner being aggrieved and finding no other efficacious remedy but to invoke the constitutional jurisdiction of this hon'ble court on following grounds:

GROUND:

- a. That as per judgment of the Apex Court seniority will always be counted from the date of appointment not from the date of completion of training. Hence stance of respondents is not tenable in the eyes of law.
- b. That section 24-A of General Clauses Act has been violated but the respondents are not performing their statutory duty to redress the grievance of petitioner within department, without compelling him to approach the court.
- c. That upgradation is not falling within the terms and conditions of service.
- d. That petitioner has a fundamental right under Article 4 of Constitution of Pakistan 1973 to be dealt in accordance with law but ignoring aforementioned section of law is violent disregard of fundamental right of petitioner.
- e. That the criteria for upgradation is seniority-cum-fitness, which in fact means length of service and admittedly length of

- f. That respondents have executed their powers and jurisdiction by enjoying their own innovation and monopoly creating hurdles for petitioner, by giving him discriminatory treatment which deprived him of his legally vested rights.
