- 2- The Secretary Education, KPK, Civil Secretariat Peshawar.
- 3- The Director Education, (E&SE), Peshawar.

.....Respondents.

APPEAL UNDER SECTION 4 OF THE KPK SERVICE TRIBUNALS ACT 1974 FOR DIRECTING THE RESPONDENTS TO GRANT THE APPELLANT SERVICE BENEFITS OF SUBJECT SPECIALIST POST FROM HIS FIRST DATE OF APPOINTMENT AS GIVEN TO HIS OTHER COLLEAGUES WHO WERE APPOINTED ALIKE THE APPELLANT AND AGAINST NOT TAKING ANY ACTION ON THE DEPARTMENTAL APPEAL OF APPELLANT WITHIN STATUTORY PERIOD.

PRAYER: That on acceptance of this appeal the respondents may be directed to grant the appellant service benefits of subject specialist post from his first date of appointment as given to his other colleagues who were appointed alike the appellant with all back and consequential benefits. Any other remedy which this august Tribunal deems fit that may also be awarded in favour of appellant.

FACTS:

- 1- That the appellant was initially appointed as Subject Specialist (Pak: Studies) on fixed pay in BPS-15 vide order dated. 12.5.1990. The appellant also subsequently qualified Public Service Commission Exam in the year 1992 and as such thereafter the appellant was notified as Subject Specialist on regular basis vide order dated .25.9.1992. Copies of orders are attached as Annexure – A & B.
- 2- That the appellant also filed a service appeal NO. 89/1994 for regularizing his service from the date of appointment. The said appeal was decided on 6.11.1994 and the appellant was allowed graded pay/ presumptive pay from the date of appointment while the plea of regularization from the date of 1st appointment was not accepted by this august Tribunal. Copy of the judgment is attached as Annexure – C.
- 3- That the appellant was promoted to BPS-18 vide notification dated. 15.7.2004 and was posted as principal. Copy of order is attached as Annexure – D.

Hence the present appeal on the following grounds amongst the others. Copy of appeal is attached as Annexure – H.

GROUND:

- A- That not treating the appellant at par with his colleagues who stood regularized as subject specialist from the date of 1st date of appointment and not taking any action on the appeal of appellant within statutory period is against the law and norms of justice, equity and fair play.

- B- That the respondent Deptt: has already promised the appellant as to when a new cause would come then he will be also be regularized from his first date of appointment. Therefore, now the respondents are under obligation to consider the claim of appellant as promised because his other a like colleagues have been enjoying regular Subject Specialist from 1st date of appointment.
- C- That the conduct and act of respondent Deptt; is discriminatory towards the appellant, which is against the principles of fair play and equity.
- D- That under the principles of consistency and equality, equity, the appellant is also entitled to the benefits of service already granted to his colleagues.
- E- That the appellant seeks permission to advance other grounds and proofs at the time of hearing.

It is therefore most humbly prayed that the appeal of the appellant may be accepted as prayed for.

JUDGMENT

QAZI HAMID-UD-DIN-J, CHAIRMAN:- This appeal has been filed by Abdul Haleem against the respondents with the prayers that the appellant's services be regularized as Subject Specialist from retrospective effect, that the appellant be allowed arrears of pay and that the appellant be granted seniority/service benefits from the date of his first appointment under section 7(5) of the Civil Servants Act XVIII of 1973.

~~REJECTED~~
The facts leading to the present appeal are that the appellant, who is M.A in Pak: Studies and having the experience of C.T.I for a period of 3 years, was appointed as Subject Specialist in BPS-15 (Fixed) on temporary basis against the vacant post of B-17 on 12.5.1990. According to the appellant the said appointment could be deemed to have been made on contractual basis as envisaged by section 5(2) of the NWFP Civil Servants (Regularization of Services) Act, 1988 and on the promulgation of NWFP Employees on contract basis (Regulation of Services) Act, 1989 the appellant attained the status of a civil servant on adhoc basis. It was, however, obligatory under section 4 of the said Act to appear before the Public Service Commission within a period of 3 months but the said provision could not be implemented as the Public Service Commission failed to arrange interview within the prescribed period. In the meanwhile NWFP employees on contract basis Amendment Act, 1990 was promulgated through which the above mentioned obligation was removed and the appellant as such was entitled to have regularized his service as a regular civil servant as Subject Specialist. Therefore, on 14.12.1991 he submitted a departmental appeal. He then filed a writ petition in the Peshawar High Court which was also dismissed as withdrawn with permission to file a fresh one. The appellant filed a second writ petition which was also dismissed as withdrawn in order to seek relief from a proper forum having jurisdiction in the subject matter. Hence the present appeal. The appellant contends that vide notification dated 26.9.1992 he was appointed in B-17 on regular basis on the recommendation of Public Service Commission and is entitled to service benefits and seniority, graded pay and arrears from the date of his appointment as Subject Specialist i.e. 12.5.1990.

The respondents have filed their joint reply in which the claim of the appellant has been denied and it has been stated that since the appellant has been appointed in B-17 on regular basis on 26.9.1992, therefore, he is only entitled to service benefits and seniority from the date of his regular appointment in B-17 w.e.f. 26.9.1992.

Arguments heard and record perused.

It is an admitted fact that the appellant was appointed in BPS-15 (Fixed) on 12.5.1990 against the vacant post of Subject Specialist (B-17) on temporary basis by the respondent department. This Tribunal as well as the Superior Courts have held in various judgments that if a person is qualified to hold a higher post and if he is made to work against a higher post whether on the basis of adjustment or stop gap arrangement or on temporary basis, he would be entitled to the presumptive pay of the post alongwith increments and his pay would be regularized accordingly if he possess^{es} minimum qualification for the post. In this case as the appellant has been working against the post of Subject Specialist which is a BPS-17 post, therefore, he is held to be entitled only to the presumptive pay of the post alongwith increments with effect from the date he acquired the minimum qualification for the post with arrears, if any from that date. As regards other prayer, since the appellant's services have been regularized in B-17 as Subject Specialist on 26.9.1992 on the recommendation of the NWFP Public Service Commission, therefore, he is entitled to service benefits and seniority from the date of his regular appointment in B-17 w.e.f. 26.9.1992. The appeal is accepted in the above terms. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record.

Subject: APPEAL FOR GRANT OF TENTATIVE SENIORITY AT
S.NO. 12 INSTEAD OF 150 IN BPS-18

R/Sir,

I beg to submit as under:-

1. That I was appointed as Subject Specialist in BPS – 15 against BPS – 17 on 25-05-1990 alongwith the following subject specialists vide notification No. SO (S) 4 – 24 / 2009 / T SL (M) / B – 17 dated Peshawar the 12-01-2010.

2. That consequent upon qualifying test and interview of Public Service Commission for the post of SS in Pakistan Studies, I was appointed as regular SS, w.e.f 26-9-1992.
3. That my continuous officiation on SS Post upto my regular appointment was not considered, hence I went in appeal and was given relief of presumptive pay alongwith increments from 26-09-1992. but the department did not allow me increments w.e.f 25-05-1990 to 26-09-1992. Further more, I was told by the department that on any final decision in respect of subject specialists from S.No. 1 to 12 you can claim the benefits of any service rights if they were awarded by the department or courts, in your respective lien.
4. That now vide No. SO (S) 4-24/2009/T SL (M)/B-17 dated 12-01-2010 all the 12 subject specialists were given seniority in BPS-17 from the date of their respective appointment as SS in BPS-15 against BPS-17, with the direction that the objection / observation if any shall reach the E & SE within 30 days positively.
5. That I have already submitted an application for corrigendum of my seniority to be placed at S.No. 12, but this was under consideration till issuance of notification No. SO (S)4-26/2010/TSL (M) / B-18 dated 7-2-2012, my name at S.No. 12 was not antedated / included and remained at S.No. 150 despite my departmental appeal with fresh cause of action.

GROUND:

- (a). That according to natural justice I am entitled to be placed at S.No. 12 instead of 150 in my respective batch with lien in it by date of appointment.
- (b). That the department has promised me for antedated promotion in my respective batch w.e.f 25-5-1990, if any fresh cause comes out.
- (c). That the department very vividly circulated notification No. SO (S)4-24/2009/TSL (M) dated 12-01-2010 for submission of application on any grounds of objection / observation within one month. I have also submitted my application for corrigendum of seniority at S.No. 12.

In the light of above mentioned facts and grounds I very humbly request to accept my departmental appeal and I may be awarded seniority in BPS-18 on the analogy of Mr. Fazal Iqbal and others from S.No. 2 - 12 in BPS-18.

As like others SS filed appeal in the honorable court and courts also decided the same nature cases in the favor of his colleagues and the respondent's department grant benefits according to the rules and policy. But respondent department restrain/deprive the appellant from the same benefits which is against the principles of fair play and equality.
