Subject: STANDING MEDICAL BOARD.
Memorandum:

Kindly refer to your office Memo: No. 423-24/MS/SMB/2016-17, dated 26.01.2017 on the subject cited above.

It is submitted that Constable Mauzam Ali No. 396 has enlisted in Police department as Constable on 25.10.2004. He served 13 year's service with punctually and obediently in the department but now he face mental disturbance and his treatment is under process. The said Constable decided to leave the department on medical board pension which is very suitable decision. The duties of police department are affecting his mental status. The medicines used by him for treatment are contained drowsiness while the duties of police department require every time mental presence. If, the said Constable perform his duties in drowsiness condition he will be unable to meet with emergency situation willfully and any untoward incident cannot be ruled out.

In view of the above medical board opinion is required for further proceedings into his application of medical board pension which may please be provide to this office an earlier, please.
