advertisement, the respondent invited application for appointment against different posts including the post of SST Bio / Chemistry in BPS-16 on the terms and conditions mentioned therein. Petitioners having requisite qualification applied for the same, competed with others and finally selected as such on 14.09.2018. In pursuance thereof, they submitted arrival and assumed the charged. However, on 06.05.2019, their appointment order was withdrawn on the ground that they were low in merit, which necessitated to file the present constitutional petition.

3. Arguments heard and record perused.

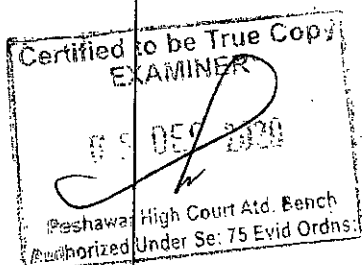

4. It is evident from the record that vide appointment order dated 14.09.2018, petitioners were appointed as SST Bio / Chemistry in BPS-16, however, at a belated stage their appointment order were withdrawn, on 06.05.2019. Admittedly, the petitioners are civil servants. They have challenged the withdrawal of their appointment order through instant petition. The dispute brought before this court relates to the terms and conditions of the civil servants, the Service Tribunal constituted under Section 4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974, has jurisdiction to hear appeals of the civil servants as defined in Section 2(a) of the Service Tribunal Act and Section 2(1)(b), of the Civil Servant Act, 1973, it has the power to confirm, set aside, vary or modify the order appealed against. All question of law and facts urged before us are open to be gone into by the Tribunal. A plane reading of Article 212 of the Constitution of Islamic of Republic of Pakistan, 1973 would make it crystal clear that the Tribunal has the exclusive jurisdiction to hear disputes in these matters and jurisdiction of High Court is also ouster to all such matters which fell within the jurisdictional domain of Service Tribunal. In this context, reliance can be placed on the judgment reported as Fauzia Siddique Qureshi Vs Secretary, Ministry of Education Islamabad and others (2004 SCMR 521).

In this behalf, reference may also be made to the case reported as Peer Muhammad Vs Government of Balochistan through Chief Secretary and others (2007 SCMR 54), wherein it was ruled that Article 212 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan ousts jurisdiction of all other courts and orders of the departmental authority even though without jurisdiction or malafide can be challenged only before the Service Tribunal and jurisdiction of Civil Court including High Court is specifically ousted. The plea of malafide does not confer upon High Court jurisdiction to act in the matter in view of the Constitutional ouster as contained in Article 212 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan and Service Tribunal has full jurisdiction to interfere in such like matters. In this respect further reliance can be placed on the judgment reported as Khawaja Abdul Wahid Vs Chairman, WAPDA (1986 SCMR 1534). In this regard we are also fortified by the dictum laid down in case reported as Ali Azhar Khan Baloch Vs Province of Sindh (2015 SCMR 456), wherein it was ruled as under:

"Article 212 of the Constitution ousted the jurisdiction of High Courts and civil courts in respect of the matters pertaining to terms and conditions of civil servants--- Provisions of Art. 212 of the Constitution did not confer a concurrent jurisdiction to civil courts, High Courts and Tribunals--- Ouster of jurisdiction contemplated under the Art. 212 of the Constitution was a constitutional command, and, therefore, of necessity restricted the jurisdiction of civil courts and High Courts on the subject, which squarely fell within the exclusive domain of Service Tribunals--- Exercise of jurisdiction by way of suit and constitutional petition filed by a civil servant with regard to his terms and conditions of service was violative of Arts. 175, 212 & 240 of the Constitution and the law---Review petition was dismissed accordingly.

212---Civil service---Terms and conditions of service---Ouster of jurisdiction of civil courts and High Courts---Scope---High Court should not entertain a suit or petition filed by a civil servant relating to his terms and conditions of service, in view of the bar contained under Art. 212 of the Constitution--- Once a civil servant has exhausted all his legal remedies (up to the Supreme Court), he could not initiate a second round of litigation by filing a constitutional petition or suit on the same subject--Civil servant could not raise any issue which pertained to terms and conditions of his service, particularly, when such issue had finally been decided by the Supreme Court.

Forum--Service Tribunal, jurisdiction of--Mode of correction in the date of birth of a civil servant was provided under R. 12A of the Civil Servants (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 1973, which was part of the terms and conditions of service of a civil servant--Correction in date of birth by a civil servant could not be done through a civil suit (in view of the bar contained under Art. 212 of the Constitution)-- Civil servant had to approach the Service Tribunal for alteration in his date of birth."

The judgment reported as Jawad Ali and other Vs Superintendent Jail and others (2017 PLC (CS) 587), relied upon by the learned counsel for the petitioners is out of context because in the said case, the appointment order of the writ petitioners were cancelled on the desire of competent authority, and that too without assigning any reason. However, in the instant case, the appointment orders of the petitioners was withdrawn, on the complaint of the candidates who were ahead of the petitioners on merit, after probing into the matter.

5. For what has been discussed hereinabove, this writ petition, is hereby dismissed in limine being not maintainable, however, the petitioners shall be at liberty to seek their relief before the appropriate forum, if so advised.
