Counsel for appellant present.

Muhammad Rasheed learned Deputy District Attorney for respondents present.

Two different applications were filed by the learned counsel for appellant. One for restraining the respondent from making recovery from monthly pay/salary of the appellant till the disposal of appeal while the second petition was filed seeking amendment in the memo of appeal.

Notice of both the applications were served upon learned D.D.A. Application seeking amendment was not objected to, hence, allowed. Learned counsel for appellant is directed to file amended appeal within 10 days, positively. Where-after respondents be put on notice for reply/comments of the amended appeal within 10 days in office after the receipt of notices.

So far as application for restraining the respondents from making recovery from the salary of the appellant is concerned, it is evident that deduction has already been made from the salary of the staff who were absent in the month of April, 2020, however, in view of the request of learned counsel for appellant, respondents are restrained from ~~recovery~~ making recovery from the salary of appellant, if not deducted earlier.

Although, the case has been fixed for preliminary hearing yet the record shows that two different applications had been filed on behalf of appellant; one for maintenance of status-quo restraining the respondents from recovery while the other was filed for amendment in the memo of appeal. Learned counsel for appellant was asked in respect of the proposed amendment, however, he was not in a position to clarify, therefore, the learned D.D.A was directed to apprise this Tribunal in respect of the impugned orders for which time was sought. Therefore, case is adjourned for arguments on the above mentioned two applications till tomorrow i.e. 26.10.2021 before D.B at Camp Court, D.I.Khan.

APPLICATION FOR MAINTENANCE OF STATUS QUO RESTRAINING THE RESPONDENTS NOT TO MAKE RECOVERY FROM THE MONTHLY PAY / SALARY OF APPELLANT IN FUTURE TILL THE DISPOSAL OF APPEAL.

Respected Sir,

1. That the appellant impugned the legality of order / action of the office of respondent No. 6 vide which monthly pay/salary of the appellant for the month of April 2020 has been withheld without any legal justification.
2. That the appeal came up for hearing before the honourable Chairman of the Tribunal on 28.07.2021 and the same has been admitted to full hearing and notices have been ordered to be issued to respondents for the date fixed as 25.10.2021 at Camp Court D.I.Khan.
3. That it is very strange and surprising that the office of respondent No. 6 once again withheld and deducted an amount of Rs: 53,175/- from the monthly pay/ salary for the month of August-2021 of the appellant for the reasons not known to the appellant.
4. That the appellant there and then served the office of the respondent No. 6 through legal Notice dated 08.09.2021 not to make recovery / deduction in future from the monthly pay/ salary of the appellant and the appellant also preferred departmental appeal / representation dated 06.09.2021 before the Appellate Authority i.e. respondent No. 4.
