Counsel for the appellant present.

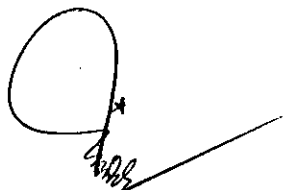

According to submissions of the appellant in his department appeal, he was removed from service vide notification dated 28.12.2010 without conducting any departmental proceedings while he was abroad and not communicated about any kind of proceedings. In the grounds of his departmental appeal, the appellant urged that right of fair trial by virtue of Article 10-A of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973 has not been provided to him. Let the respondents be put on pre-admission notice. To come up for their stance and record, if any, about the proceedings taken before issuance of the impugned order. Case to come up on 12.10.2021 for preliminary hearing before S.B.
