Counsel for the petitioner present. The present appeal was dismissed on account of non-prosecution vide order dated 21.12.2018. Learned counsel for the petitioner argued that the said appeal was received in this Tribunal through registered post and entry to this effect was made on 10.08.2018. According to the invogue procedure, the staff of the Tribunal was required to issue proper notices to the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the petitioner. However, the record placed before us revealed that notices were not issued by the staff of notice branch of this Tribunal. On the other hand when the matter was inquired by the learned counsel for the appellant from the office of Registrar of this Tribunal on 23.07.2019, he came to know about dismissal of the appeal on account of non-prosecution.

Available papers have proved that the appellant could not be held responsible for the delay occurred in preferring application for restoration of service appeal. Request for restoration of the instant service appeal appears to be genuine. As such the instant appeal is restored to its original number and be fixed to its previous proceedings on 16.12.2019 before S.B at camp court Abbottabad.
