REGISTRAR

04.10.2022

Appellant alongwith counsel (Mr. Muhammad Yousaf Orakzai, Advocate) present.

Learned counsel for the appellant while arguing the case on restoration of service appeal, contended that non-prosecution of the service appeal on 14.07.2022 was not intentional because learned counsel for the appellant was busy in the Honourable Peshawar High Court whereas the appellant was suffering from heart disease and could not appear in the Service Tribunal on the said date. Restoration application has been submitted on 29.07.2022 which is well within time.

In view of the arguments of learned counsel for the appellant, the service appeal being in time under Rule 19(3) of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Rules, 1974 is restored to its original number. To come up for further proceedings on 25.11.2022 before the D.B.
