Counsel for the appellant present. Learned counsel for the appellant has fairly submitted that although his departmental appeal was barred by limitation but he says that the appellant had rendered more than 10 years and could be granted compassionate allowance for which he would stress this appeal. The respondents have filed reply, therefore, considering the submission of learned counsel for the appellant let this appeal be admitted to full hearing subject to all just and legal objections by the other side. The learned AAG accepts the notice of this appeal as the reply has already been filed, therefore, it is fixed for arguments before the D.B on 13.09.2022 subject to deposit of security fee within 10 days.
