Miss. Rooeda Khan, Advocate, for petitioner is present. Mr. Kabirullah Khattak, Additional Advocate General, for the respondents, is also present.

Arguments on restoration application heard and record perused.

The record reflects that despite having been noticed on account of her absence recorded on 13.05.2019 the petitioner did not appear nor her counsel attended the Tribunal in pursuance thereof, to deposit security and process fee within the stipulated period of time, therefore, the appeal was dismissed for non deposit of fee and charges as well as for default in appearance whereas the restoration application has been submitted on 22.07.2019 which is time barred. The reasons assigned by the petitioner are that she appeared through her counsel who marked her attendance before the Reader who was informed to deposit the process fee by handing him over 17.07.2019 as the next date of hearing but surprisingly when on that date of hearing the petitioner was communicated information with regard to dismissal of her appeal in default.

While keeping in view the facts of the case and the right involved on the one hand and the fact that the appeal is in its initial stage on the other and when the merit of the case has not been touched so far, and the reasons assigned for the restoration application are accepted however, for the purpose of admonition cost of Rs. 2000/- is imposed directing appellant to be vigilant in future. On realization of the cost it be delivered to the other party on obtaining receipt to be placed on file. File to come up for written reply/comments on 18.01.2021 before S.B.

Nemo for the appellant.

Instant appeal was admitted for regular hearing on 26.03.2019 and the appellant was required to deposit the security and process fee within 10 days. The requisite fee, however, was not deposited within the prescribed period. Further, the appellant was not represented on 13.05.2019, therefore, notice to her was ordered on the last date. The record shows that a notice was duly issued through registered post to the appellant for appearance today. Similar notice was issued to her learned counsel also which was received by him on 28.05.2019. Despite the exercise, no one is in appearance today on behalf of the appellant nor the requisite security and process fee is deposited till date.

The appeal is therefore, dismissed for non-deposit of fee and charges as well as for default in appearance by the appellant.

ANNOUNCED

30.05.2019

26.03.2019

Learned counsel for the appellant present. Preliminary arguments heard.

The appellant (PST) has filed the present service appeal u/s 4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act 1974 on the ground that juniors to the appellant have been promoting to the post of SPST while ignoring the appellant; that upon approaching the competent authority the appellant was told that the rest of the teachers shall be promoted soon however no action was taken so far; that the departmental representation of the appellant also went un-responded.

Points urged need consideration. The appeal is admitted for regular hearing subject to all legal objections. The appellant is directed to deposit security and process fee within 10 days. Thereafter, notices be issued to the respondents for written reply/comments. To come up for written reply/comments on 13.05.2019 before S.B
