Learned counsel for the appellant argued that the initial appointment order of the appellant was controverted by the respondents compelling the appellant to finally approach this Tribunal. That vide judgment dated 19.2.2015 this Tribunal directed the respondents to treat the service appeal as departmental appeal and pass order deemed appropriate. That vide impugned order dated 24.3.2015 the appellate authority has rejected the said appeal treated as departmental appeal and hence the instant service appeal.

That the appellant was lawfully appointed and the impugned order is against facts and law and therefore liable to be set-aside.

27th July 2022 Learned counsel for the appellant present. Mr. Muhammad Adeel Butt, Additional Advocate General alongwith Ms. Maham, SDO and Muhammad Owais, Superintendent for respondent present.

Arguments heard to a great extent. During the arguments, question of legality of the appointment order was seriously agitated and argued. The Tribunal put a query whether the appointment order issued to the appellant was cancelled/recalled, on which the representatives of the respondents and learned Additional Advocate General sought some time to dig out the record regarding the above fact because the office of SE C&W was shifted twice in the meantime. Let, in the interest of justice, time be given to them to produce any document showing that the orders of appointment of the appellants were recalled/cancelled and also to produce the copies of the other relevant record. To come up for production of record as well as remaining arguments on 20.09.2022 before the D.B.
