Petitioner in person present. Mr. Muhammad Adeel Butt, Addl: AG alongwith Mr. Irshad Khan, Deputy Secretary and Mr. Azhar Khan, SO for respondents present.

Representative of the respondents has pointed out a paragraph of the consolidated judgment wherein the appeal of the appellant was decided with the observation as the petitioner had not been regularized so far, the respondents were directed to consider him for regular promotion as and when vacancies become available for him. It is further contended by the learned AAG that vide notification no. S.O E.II(ED)2(192) 2012 dated 04.10.2012, the petitioner was accordingly promoted to the post of PMS officer in PBS-17 on regular basis. Through the instant matter the petitioner had initially filed a service appeal, which was converted by the bench to execution application vide order dated 24.11.2021, it was with the prayer that the services of the appellant might be quintessentially regularized since 25.03.2010 by placement of appellant in BPS-17 when the appellant has been continuously serving as DDOR & E (Judicial) since 25.03.2010 in the cadre. When confronted with the above situation the petitioner submitted that his learned counsel would assist the Court on the point. To come up on 06.01.2023 before S.B.
