30.09.2020

Counsel for the appellant present.

Learned counsel argued that the appellant was initially appointed on 04.11.2010 on adhoc basis as a stop-gap arrangement. On 02.07.2012, his service was regularized through notification. The respondents, however, did not count his service on adhoc basis for the purpose of extending service benefits to the appellant. Learned counsel also referred to the judgment of Honourable Peshawar High Court passed in Writ Petition No. 2039-P/2014 on 24.05.2017. The petition was submitted by the officials placed similar to the appellant, while the last paragraph of the judgment required the respondents to regularize the petitioners therein from their respective dates of initial appointment. The appellant was duly entitled to the similar treatment.

Subject to all just exceptions, instant appeal is admitted to regular hearing. The appellant is directed to deposit security and process fee within 10 days. Thereafter, notices be issued to the respondents. To come up for written reply/comments on 30.11.2020 before S.B.
