05.07.2021 Counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Kabir Ullah Khattak, Additional Advocate General for the respondents present and heard.

After having gone through the conditional order passed in compliance of the judgment dated 21.03.2018 of this Tribunal, it is observed that the said order on the following grounds is not a proper order to reflect the compliance of the judgment in its letter and spirit:-

1. The judgment was due for compliance when it was passed on 21.03.2018 while the reinstatement has been made on 06.03.2019 with immediate effect. So the said order needs correction for the date of reinstatement.

2. The operative part of the judgment reveals that the penalty of dismissal from service was converted into minor penalty i.e stoppage of withholding of two increments for three years and treating the absence period as well as intervening period as leave without pay. The implementation order is silent above this part of the judgment.

In view of the above, it is directed the office order dated 06.03.2019 be corrected through corrigendum or be substituted to make it compatible with the judgment dated 21.03.2018 in letter and spirit. To come up for implementation report on 17.08.2021 before S.B.

3. Brief facts of the appeals are that the appellants were inducted in police service and while serving so the appellant Khalid Khan allegedly absented himself for 23 days, appellant Haider Zaman allegedly absented himself for 74 days and appellant Anwar Saddat allegedly absented himself for 12 days and as such they were discharged from service under Rule 12.21 of Police Rules vide order dated 15.11.2007. Aggrieved from the said orders they preferred service appeals before this Tribunal which were allowed vide judgment dated 26.03.2015, and their cases were remanded to the appellate authority for consideration and decision. Vide impugned order dated 01.07.2015 communicated to the appellants on 27.07.2015 their appeals were rejected. They again filed service appeals which were partially accepted and the appellants were reinstated into service, however, respondent-department was directed to conduct de-novo inquiry in the mode and manner prescribed by rules within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the judgment vide detailed judgment dated 09.11.2016. That after conducting de-novo inquiry the appellants were again dismissed from service vide order dated 08.05.2017. That the appellants again filed department appeal on 12.05.2017 but the same was rejected on 06.07.2017 hence, the present service appeals on 31.07.2017.

4. Learned counsel for the appellants contended that as per available record the appellant Khalid Khan allegedly absented himself for 23 days, appellant Haider Zaman allegedly absented himself for 74 days and appellant Anwar Saddat allegedly absented himself for 12 days therefore, their dismissal from service are very harsh. That the other colleagues of the appellants were also remained absent from duty but the respondent-department have reinstated them therefore, the appellants were discriminated and contended that the impugned order is illegal and liable to be set-aside.

5. On the other hand, learned District Attorney for the respondents opposed the contention of learned counsel for the appellant and contended that the appellants willfully remained absent from duty. It was further contended that they could not justify their absence from duty. It was further contended that all the codal formalities were fulfilled and the appellant were rightly dismissed from service.

6. Perusal of the record reveals that as per this Tribunal judgment dated 09.11.2016 the appellant Khalid Khan allegedly absented himself for 23 days, appellant Haider Zaman allegedly absented himself for 74 days and appellant Anwar Saddat allegedly absented himself for 12 days and the competent authority imposed major penalty of removal from service on the basis of alleged absent. Therefore, the penalty of their dismissal from service are not in commensurate with the charge and the penalty appear to be very harsh. The record also reveals that the other employees who also remained absent from service, had been reinstated by the respondent-department and their absence period was also treated as leave without pay by Deputy Inspector General of Police vide order dated 30.11.2010. Meaning thereby that the appellants were discriminated therefore, we partially accept the appeals, set-aside the impugned orders and reinstate the appellants into service. However the penalty of dismissal from service is converted into minor penalty of stoppage of withholding of their two increments for three years and their absence period as well as intervening period are treated as leave without pay. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.

Points noted in the impugned Judgment	Treatment of points in the impugned judgment
Learned counsel for the respondents contended that as per available record the respondent Khalid Khan allegedly absented himself for 23 days, respondent Haider Zaman allegedly absented himself for 74 days and respondent Anwar Saddat allegedly absented himself for 12 days therefore, their dismissal from service are very harsh. That the other colleagues of the respondents were also remained absent from duty but	Perusal of the record reveals that as per this tribunal judgment dated 09/11/2016 the respondent Khalid Khan allegedly absented himself for 23 days, respondent Haider Zaman allegedly absented himself for 74 days and respondent Anwar Saddat allegedly absented himself for 12 days and the competent authority imposed major penalty of removal from service on the basis of alleged absent. Therefore the penalty of their dismissal from service is not in commensurate with the charge and the penalty appears to be very harsh. The record also reveals that the other employees who also remained absent from service had been reinstated by the petitioner department and their absence period

Meaning thereby that the respondents were discriminated therefore, we partially accept the appeals, set aside the impugned orders and reinstate the respondents into service.
