Learned counsel for the appellant present.

Preliminary arguments heard and case file perused.

Counsel for the appellant argued that the appellant has been serving in Education department as PST since 20.10.2004. That the appellant was eligible for promotion to B-14 as per prevailing policy of upgradation/ promotion at the time when DPC meeting was held and promotion were notified on 12.07.2014, but was deferred for the reason not known or communicated. That the appellant was later promoted to B-14 vide order dated 05.02.2015 with effect from 31.01.2015, but the promotion order was received late therefore no charge was taken against the B-14 post on promotion due to no entry in the service book. That office staff of respondent No. 2 & 3 informed the appellant to wait for next DPC as the earlier DPC has expired after lapse of 15 days and that fresh DPC will be arranged shortly. That the appellant preferred departmental appeal (Copy not retained and only TCS receipt dated 10.08.2017 placed in service appeal) but the same has not been decided within the stipulated period.

Pre-admission notice be issued to Learned Additional AG office to assist the Court in this respect. ^{order sheet dated 20/11/2017 refers.} To come up for preliminary hearing on 04/01/18 before S.B.

Learned counsel for the appellant present. Preliminary arguments heard and case file perused.

Learned counsel for the appellant argued that the appellant was appointed as PST on 20.10.2004 at GGPS Paromli, that as per the prevailing policy of the upgradation/promotion for PST Primary side the appellant completely fit for the promotion of B-14. Further argued that the appellant without any reason and deficiencies deprived from promotion on 12.07.2014 then on next DPC dated 05.08.2015 the appellant promoted to SPST B-14 but the charge report not submitted within the time due to the late information and the respondent refused its implementation and no entry has ^{been} made in the service book as SPST with effect from 05.08.2015. That the appellant is entitled as SPST from dated 07.12.2014 instead of 05.08.2015. That the appellant preferred departmental appeal dated 10.08.2016 which was not responded within statutory period of 90 days. That no limitation runs against salaries.

Points raised need consideration. Admitted for regular hearing subject to all legal objections including limitation. The appellant is also directed to deposit security and process fee within (10) days, whereafter notice be issued to the respondents department for written reply/comments on 19.02.2018 before S.B.

Counsel for the appellant and Mr. Riaz Ahmad Paindakheil, Assistant AG for the respondents present.

When the case was argued at some length, learned counsel for the appellant invited attention toward notification dated 12.07.2014, whereby promotion of 56 PST (BPS-12) to SPST (BPS-14) including the appellant was deferred by the Departmental Promotion Committee. According to learned counsel for the appellant, the appellant was promoted vide order dated 05.08.2015 but was not allowed to assume charge by the respondents. They were again not considered for promotion vide notification dated 04.08.2016. Through the departmental appeal, the appellant assailed the promotion order referred to above. When confronted on the point to provide a copy of departmental appeal preferred by the appellant, he informed that the same had been misplaced.

On the other hand, learned Assistant AG stated that according to the available record of the respondents, departmental appeal was not preferred by the appellant. He further contended that they had given option to forego promotion that is why their cases were not considered by the Departmental Promotion Committee in the meeting referred to above.

In order to reach to a just conclusion, both the parties are directed to provide copy of departmental appeal preferred by the appellant alongwith option, if any, to forego promotion by the appellant on or before the next date of hearing. Adjourned to 06.08.2019 for record and arguments before D.B.

Neither appellant is present in person nor anyone else representing her has appeared at the moment when the appeal was called for hearing at 12:20 P.M. Mr. Kabirullah Khattak, Additional Advocate General and Mr. Fazle Khaliq, Litigation Officer, for the respondents are present.

The learned Additional Advocate General while referring order sheet dated 13.06.2019 submitted that the parties were directed to furnish copy of departmental appeal moved by the appellant to the competent authority but the same has not been produced when the representative of the department was queried, in response thereof he submitted that they have no copy of departmental appeal because no such appeal/representation has been made by the appellant. The matter requires clarification from the appellant and her respective counsel. The appeal is pending adjudication since 11.07.2017, therefore, last chance is provided to the appellant and her counsel to argue the instant appeal and the appeal is accordingly adjourned to 29.03.2021 for arguments before D.B. In the meanwhile appellant as well as her respective counsel have to be noticed for the date fixed.
