JUDGMENT

ATIQU-UR-REHMAN WAZIR MEMBER (E):- Brief facts of the case are that the appellant was initially appointed as Primary School Teacher in 1992 and in due course was appointed as SET (BPS-16) on the recommendations of Public Service Commission. In the year 2009, by introducing management cadre in the education department, the respondents advertised the post of Assistant District Officer(ADO) through public service commission, where the appellant also applied through proper channel and was ultimately recruited as ADO, vide order dated 13-05-2011. In the meanwhile the respondents advertised post of sub-divisional education officer/assistant director (BPS-17) in the same cadre through public service

-54-

Commission and the appellant again applied for such post through proper channel and was recruited as sub-divisional education officer/assistant director (BPS-17) vide order dated 02-12-2013. The appellant again applied for another post of Principal (BPS-18) advertised through public service commission and was recruited as Principal in BPS-18 in teaching cadre vide order dated 16-02-2016. The appellant joined the new assignment but submitted an application for retention of lien on his previous post. After lapse of his lien period, the appellant preferred a departmental appeal dated 16-07-2019 for re-joining his previous post in management cadre, but the respondents did not respond, hence the instant service appeal with prayers that the inaction of the respondents by not allowing the appellant to re-join his previous post of sub-divisional education officer may very kindly be declared as illegal and respondents may be directed to allow the appellant to re-join his post.

Learned counsel for the appellant has contended that inaction of the respondents by not allowing the appellant to join his previous post of management cadre is against law and rule, hence not tenable in the eye of law; that the appellant has not been treated in accordance with law, as such the respondents violated Article-4 and 25 of the Constitution; that in light of FR-14 (A) the appellant is fully entitled for re-joining his previous post, but the respondents are not willing to do the same; that inaction of the respondents by not allowing the appellant to join his previous post is violative of Clause-24(A) of the General Clauses Act, 1897; that the inaction of the respondents is against Article-38(e) of the Constitution.

Learned Additional Advocate General appearing on behalf of respondents has contended that the appellant changed his cadre from management to teaching cadre, so automatically his seniority was placed in teaching cadre; that there is no original/appellate order, against which the appellant filed such appeal, which is not maintainable as per Article-4 of the Service Tribunal Act. The learned Additional Advocate General added that now, the appellant hails from teaching cadre and cannot be adjusted against management cadre; hence, his appeal being devoid of merit may be dismissed.

We have heard learned counsel for the parties and have perused the record. Record reveals that since 13-05-2011 until 16-02-2016, the appellant remained on the strength of management cadre in education department and while joining teaching cadre as principal (BPS-18) vide order dated 16-02-2016, the appellant was again posted against a management post as Deputy Director (schools) in the directorate of Education Ex-FATA vide order dated 31-03-2016. The appellant after joining the new assignment submitted an application dated 19-03-2016 for extension of his lien for two years on his previous post. In the meanwhile the appellant, while on official duty in southern districts on 11-02-2017, was kidnapped by some unknown culprits, who later on was released on payment of ransom, but the said incident put the appellant in mental agony and he requested for retirement vide his application dated 17-09-2018, which however was not accepted by the respondents. Record reveals that after his appointment as principal in teaching cadre, the appellant remained posted against management cadre posts for most of his tenure. After lapse of two years, the appellant again submitted an application dated 08-03-2018 for further extension of his lien for one year as per law and finally after expiry of three years, the appellant reported his arrival back to his previous position on 10-03-2019, but he was not allowed by the respondents to re-join his previous post.

It was noted that the appellant after serving for almost five years in management cadre, joined the teaching cadre through proper channel and was properly relieved by his parent office. As per Fundamental Rules-14, the appellant had lien on his previous post until he was confirmed in the borrowing department. There is nothing on record to show as to whether the appellant was permanently confirmed against such post after completion of his probation period as per requirement of Rule-16 of Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Civil Servant.
Certified to be true copy

(Appointment, Promotion & Transfer) Rules, 1989. The respondents also did not confirm as to whether his probation period was terminated after completion of one year. The appellant however fulfilled his legal obligations by submitting applications for retention of his lien, but nothing is available on record to show that his lien was terminated. Submission of repeated applications by the appellant for retention of his lien shows that the appellant was willing to return to his original post, but the respondents kept mum over his repeated requests. The level of his eagerness can be gauged from the fact that the appellant stated at the bar that in order to avoid further litigation, he may be placed at the bottom of the seniority in the management cadre, though he was the senior most amongst his colleagues in the management cadre. The Supreme Court of Pakistan in its judgment reported in 1996 SCMR 284 have held that civil servant having not been confirmed in any of his subsequent jobs, his lien with his parent department remained intact throughout inspite of the fact that he joined service in another department. The Apex Court in its other judgments reported in 1992 SCMR 435 and 2005 SCMR 1212 have held that lien of a permanent civil servant could not be terminated even with consent of the appellant unless he had been confirmed against some other permanent post. Placed on record is a letter dated 25-06-2019 issued by Elementary & Secondary Education Department addressed to the Director Elementary & Secondary Education Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, operative part of which is reproduced as under:

"keeping in view the acute un-employment in the country in general and KP Province in particular, it has been decided to give right of retention initially for two years extendable by a further period of one year if a request in this behalf is received from those employees who are selected for appointment under Federal and other Provincial Governments provided they have served on regular basis for at least two years or who have completed the extended period of probation but could not be confirmed for obvious reasons"

It is worth to mention that provincial government on the one hand (encouraging retention of lien vide letter dated 25-06-2019, but on the other hand least minimum over departmental appeal dated 16-07-2019 of the appellant, which amounts to denial of his right protected under the law. In view of the foregoing, we are of the considered opinion that there are strong, valid and well-reasoned justifications for consideration of his case for permission to re-join his parent office. It is also worth mentioning that the course of litigation consumed a considerable time, so in the meanwhile all his other colleagues in his parent office elevated to BPS-18 in the wake of establishment of service rules dated 27-03-2019 for management cadre and the appellant, who was at serial No 2 of the merit assigned by the public service commission, would have been promoted if he was allowed to re-join his previous office after expiry of his lien, but since the appellant was not allowed after completion of his lien period, hence obviously, he was not promoted with his colleagues in management cadre, but since the appellant was already in BPS-18, hence, to avoid further litigation, the appellant shall be placed at the bottom of seniority amongst his colleagues of management cadre already promoted to BPS-

In view of the foregoing discussion, the instant appeal is accepted. Respondents are directed to allow the appellant to re-join his parent office and to place him in the seniority list of his already promoted colleagues to BPS-18 in management cadre at the bottom of seniority. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to record room.
