Subject: APPEAL TO WITHDRAW THE ADVERTISEMENT FOR THE POST OF DISTRICT SENIOR MVE BY THE DIRECTORATE OF TRANSPORT IN NEWSPAPER ON HUMANITARIAN GROUNDS

Dear Sir,

As a favor sir, it is requested that our application is about the changes in the Service Rules that have been made from time to time. Due to which efforts have been made to block the promotion path of all existing BPS-12 employees in this Department.

Earlier in service rules, only 5 years of service was required to move up to scale BPS-16 Senior MVE and all posts were by promotion (Annex-I). However, in July 14, 2020 (Annex-II) special changes were made in the same rank in which the promotion was cut to 50%. And 40% of the initial recruitment was given to hire more qualified engineers in the Department.

But at the same time, another injustice was done that instead of the driving school's maintenance Supervisor BPS-13 being given a place in his promotion line in his own cadre, he was given 10% quota in the promotion line of the MVEs (Annex-III). And this year a maintenance Supervisor BPS-13 was promoted on Senior MVE BPS-16 so brazenly even though his lack of a 5-year mandatory requirement was ignored. Moreover, he is posted as MVE Headquarter (there is no such nomenclature in the Budget book). The same was personally requested with the Director Transport and a written application is also given to the Director Transport diary # 894 dated 31-12-2021 (Annex-IV).

Finally, it merits mentioning in service Rules notified on November 23, 2021, the academic qualification of clause 15 of the service rules (Annex-V) for the Senior MVE BPS-16 was reduced to the initial recruitment of MVE BPS-12. Apparently, trying to achieve some goals. If now recruitment is made with the same academic qualification and tenure, it will void our rights.

Therefore, you are requested to withdraw the advertisement given in the newspaper for the recruitment process of Senior District MVE BPS-16. In addition to this give an opportunity to existing Motor Vehicle Examiners for promotion. As all the Motor Vehicle Examiners have enormous professional and relevant filed experience.

Yours faithfully,

All Motor Vehicle Examiners
