REPLY TO THE APPLICATION FOR RESTORATION

RESPECTIVELY SHEWETH:

1. Pertains to record.
2. That in pursuance of minutes of DPC meeting held on 01.07.2019 and as per Amended Police Rules, 2017, Rule No. (19-49) (Annexure-A) & Standing Order No. 03/ 2016, (Annexure-B) the name of appellant has been shown at S. No. 1 of 10th Advance Course for Inspectors which had been commenced from 15th July, 2019, (Annexure-C) at Police Training School, Swat. The appellant completed the said Course and will be promoted to the next higher rank i.e. DSP on his own turn subject to the vacant posts of DSP. The criteria for promotion to the rank of DSP have been fulfilled by the appellant however, his promotion case will be considered in the next DPC as per law/ rules.
3. This Para is incorrect hence, rebutted. Qualifying of Advance Course does not mean that after completing the said course, officers/officials should be promoted immediately to the rank of DSP. Promotion to the rank of DSP after qualifying the Advance Course is being made strictly in accordance with the seniority list and also subject to the availability of vacant posts in the rank of DSP.

PRAYER:-

As the stance of appellant taken in Service Appeal & Execution Petition has already been met out by the answering respondent by sending him to the Advance Course therefore, it is, humbly prayed that the instant application for restoration submitted by applicant may kindly be dismissed.
