2. That the appellant passed all the courses i.e. weapon course dated 31/05/1988 from Hangu, commander course dated 02/06/1990, finger printing course on 13/03/1991 and drill course dated 20/03/1996 and since then appellant is not promoted to the higher rank and till now perform his duty as a constable.

{Copy of courses certificate is attached, as mark Annex-A}

3. That the appellant filed departmental appeal to the concerned authority for his promotion but the respondent instead of responding to the departmental appeal of appellant, sought attention of the respondent No. 1 regarding framing/issuing of separate Standing Order for illiterate employees and took a plea that since special standing order for illiterate is not yet issued therefore promotion has been stopped.

{Copy of standing order 2/2014, departmental appeal & impugned order dated: 29-04-2019 is attached, as mark Annex-B, C & D}

4. That the appellant time and again approached the respondents about his promotion but all the time the appellant was put to wait for the promulgation/issuance of standing order. However neither departmental appellant was allowed nor dismissed in black and white.

5. That appellant also approached for seniority list to the concerned authority and till now the concerned office failed to provide the seniority list to the appellant. Needles to mention that the appellant submitted an application in RTI (Right to information department) and till now the application of the appellant not processed.

{Copy of application to RTI is attached, as mark Annex-E}

6. That up till now the Final Seniority List was not issued to the appellant where by the junior of appellant were promoted to the next higher rank.

7. That the appellant times and again moved applications to concerned authority for providing seniority list as well other relevant document but till now the legal demand of the appellant is not honored .

8. That the appellant feeling aggrieved from the illegal act approaches this Hon'ble Tribunal for the redressal of his grievance inter alia on the following;

GROUND:

1. That the appellant is a law binding citizen and hard working and Obey his duty with great zeal and devotion.
2. That the present appellant is the employee of frontier reserve police Khyber Pakhtonkhwa, working under the administrative control of Inspector General of police Khyber Pakhtonkhwa since his appointment i.e. 22 March 1986 in the same pay and scale and the respondents are not giving him promotion which is the right of the appellant as per law and rules.
3. That the impugned standing order dated: 08-08-2014, issued by respondent No. 2 is not applicable to the case of the appellant, because the appellant is literate, having SSC at his credit, so if, the respondents are going to issue special standing order for illiterate employees of the FRP, the can't be termed as hurdle in the way of promotion of the appellant.

{Copy of SSC certificate & pay slip is attached, as mark Annex-F}

7. That the appellant was appointed as constable and working in the said department for almost 35 years with unblemished record and till now not promoted to the any post and still working as a constable.
8. That under the rules in vogue and followed by the respondents department pertaining to service structure of the present appellant, the post of platoon commandant was to be filled through promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-fitness from amongst the constables.
9. That in light of the rules, the appellant was eligible for promotion to the post of platoon commander which was denied to be favorably considered for promotion.
10. That surprisingly, the respondents not promote the appellant and denied his legal and constitutional right.
11. That departmental appeal of the appellant was not processed in the manner as provided under the law.
12. That the Apex Court in plethora of judgments held that similarly placed employees should be dealt in the manner in which his other colleagues have been dealt but in the present case, the appellant has been discriminated and was constrained to knock at the door of this Hon'ble Tribunal for getting his lawful and deserving right.
13. That the appellant had been made victim of discrimination, demerits, partiality and favoritism without any just and reasonable cause thereby offending the fundamental rights of the appellant as provided by the constitution of 1973, hence the impugned standing order detailed above is liable to be set at naught.

5.1 FRP shall be headed by an officer not below the rank of Deputy Inspector General of Police as Commandant FRP. He shall work under the direct supervision of the Provincial Police Officer.

5.2 The Commandant FRP shall be assisted by as many Deputy Commandants (SPs BS-18), SPs FRP Ranges, Assistant Commandants (DSPs/ASP BS-17), other junior rank officers, and ministerial staff as determined by the Provincial Police Officer from time to time.

5.3 FRP shall be organized into such active Companies, Platoons and Sections and support staff, posted in FRP Headquarters, Police Regions and Police Districts, as determined by the Provincial Police Officer. An FRP Company, headed by an Inspector designated as Company Commander, shall consist of 3 FRP Platoons, each consisting of 1 SI/ASI as In-charge, 4 HCs and 40 FCs. An FRP Section shall consist of 1 HC and 10 FCs. The "illiterate" officers/officials of FRP shall be distributed in such a manner that they are evenly represented in each Platoon.

5.4 The FRP Headquarters shall be located at Peshawar or at any other place declared as FRP Headquarters by the Provincial Police Officer.

6. Requisitioning of FRP- The administrative and operational control of FRP shall rest with the Commandant FRP. However, the Capital City Police Officer (CCPO) or any Regional Police Officer (RPO) may requisition FRP strength for the mandated duties, subject to the approval of Provincial Police Officer.

6.2 The Commandant FRP, subject to any general or specific order of the Provincial Police Officer, may place the services of the FRP strength so requisitioned, for a specific period, at the disposal of CCPO or RPOs. The Commandant FRP may, subject to any general or specific order of the Provincial Police Officer, extend for a specific period the stay of FRP strength placed at the disposal of CCPO or RPOs.

to the operational command of the District Head of Police. The District Head of Police will ensure to make suitable arrangements for the lodging of the FRP strength placed in the District.

✓ 6.4 The senior most officer of FRP in a District shall be responsible for the general administration, welfare and discipline of the FRP strength, including maintenance of daily parade statement and daily duty roster. He shall keep the Commandant FRP and the District Head of Police informed about the administration, discipline, welfare or any other important matter with regard to the FRP strength in the District.

✓ 6.5 SP FRP Range shall be responsible for the general administrative, welfare and discipline of the FRP strength placed in a Region, including maintenance of daily parade statement and daily duty roster. He shall also keep the Commandant FRP, RPO; and the District Head of Police, informed about the administration, discipline, welfare or any other important matter with regard to the FRP strength in the Region.

7. Recruitment in FRP:-According to Police Order 2002, recruitment of constables is the exclusive authority of the District Head of Police. FRP is neither a Police District nor a Police Region. Therefore, henceforth, there shall be no recruitment or enrollment of constables in FRP.

8. Vacancies in FRP:-Vacancies occurring in FRP in any junior rank shall be filled through posting of officers from each District for a specific tenure. The Central Police Office (CPO) shall transfer junior most officers in each rank to FRP in accordance with the share of the respective District (Ref: section 8.3 below). Once transferred to FRP, following shall be the minimum tenure of junior rank officers in FRP:

- b) Promotion of officers on the strength of the District;
- c) Fresh recruitment.

8.3 Each District shall have a percentage share in the vacancies of FRP in junior ranks proportionate to the total strength of that District. Since presently, some Districts are over-represented in FRP, this balance shall be gradually restored.

9. Transfer of FRP officers to their Districts of Domicile:- All junior rank officers of FRP, except illiterate officers, shall be transferred to their Districts of Domicile after completion of their tenure in FRP. First should be transferred those who have served longest periods in FRP.

9.1 In case no vacancy is available in the District of Domicile, the officer transferred from FRP shall be adjusted against vacancies in his respective Region till the availability of vacancy in his District of Domicile.

10.1 Seniority of an officer of FRP on transfer to his respective District of Domicile shall be determined first on the basis of entry into service and then from the date of entry into the relevant promotion list. Should the date of entry into service or the date of entry into a promotion list of an officer transferred from FRP to a District and an officer already borne the strength of that District are the same, the officer older in age shall be placed ahead on the promotion list.

11. Promotion of FRP Personnel:-FRP is neither a Police District nor a Police Range. Therefore, promotion lists A, B, C, D and E shall no more be maintained in FRP. Instead, promotion of officers posted in FRP, as is the case of other units, shall be done by District Heads of Police or the RPOs, as the case may be, against the available vacancies in accordance with Chapter 13 of Police Rules 1934. The District Heads of Police or the RPOs, as the case may be, shall maintain consolidated lists of all officers, whether posted in the District/Range or in any other unit, including FRP.

12. Promotion Courses for FRP personnel:-Since the promotion lists of all junior rank police officers of FRP will be henceforth maintained in the irrespective Districts of Domicile and respective Ranges, nominations of FRP personnel for promotion courses i.e. Lower, Intermediate and Upper Course, shall be carried out by their respective Districts and Ranges.

12.1 All training quotas/seats hitherto allocated to FRP for promotion courses are hereby withdrawn.

12.2 The District Heads of Police or the RPOs, as the case be, shall nominate officers for promotion courses strictly in accordance with seniority and merit position, irrespective of the fact whether the officers so nominated are working in the Districts are have been posted to FRP.

12.3 In order to ensure fairness to all, the District Heads of Police or the RPOs, as the case may be, shall maintain consolidated promotion lists of all officers whether they are posted in the Districts, Regions, FRP, Special Branch, Investigation, Elite Force, Counter Terrorism Department, Traffic, CPO or any other unit or who are serving on deputation in other departments.

12.4 The Commandant FRP, however, may nominate officers working in FRP for professional courses or other capacity building training courses. For this purpose, the CPO will ensure the allocation of fair share to FRP.

13. Issues of 'Illiterate' officers of FRP:-Since 'illiterate' officers of FRP cannot be transferred to Districts/Regions, their issues with regard to seniority, promotion,

VERSUS

Inspector General of Police, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar & others.....Respondents.

PARAWISE REPLY BY RESPONDENTS.

RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH.

PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS

1. That the appeal is badly barred by law & limitation.
2. That the appeal is bad for mis-joinder and non-joinder of necessary and proper parties.
3. That the appellant has no cause of action and locus stands to file the instant appeal.
4. That the appellant has not come to this Honorable Tribunal with clean hands.
5. That the appellant is estopped due to his own conduct to file the instant Service Appeal.
6. That the appellant is trying to conceal the material facts from this Honorable Tribunal.

FACTS:-

1. Correct to the extent that the appellant was appointed as constable on 22.03.1986 in District Police Kohat. He was transferred and posted to Capital City Police Peshawar vide order Endst; No. 28833-36/E-I, dated 22.11.2013 and later on transferred to FRP Unit vide order Endst; No. 8363-64/E-IV, dated 25.08.2016.
2. Incorrect. The courses mentioned by the appellant in the para are not criteria for promotion at District Police, as per Police Rules 1934 Chapter 13, while at that time he was posted at District Police, Kohat when he qualified such courses. It is pertinent to mention here that the promotion of the officials of District Police have dealt according to Police Rules 1934 Chapter 13 accordingly. Thus the appellant was not promoted to the next higher rank as he was not qualified the promotion courses i.e Lower and intermediate college courses according to Police Rules 1934 Chapter 13.
3. Incorrect. The application submitted by the appellant for his promotion in the next higher rank thoroughly examined and found that the promotion system has already been withdrawn from FRP Unit through Standing Order No. 02/2014 and Standing Order No. 02/2016. Moreover, Standing Order No. 02/2014 Clause No. 11 provided that FRP is neither a Police District nor a Police Range. Therefore, promotion list of literate officials of FRP shall no more be maintained in FRP. Instead, promotion of literate officers posted in FRP, as in the case of other units, shall be done by District Heads of Police or the RPOs, as the case may be, against the available vacancies in accordance with Chapter 13 of Police Rules 1934. Moreover, the duties and responsibilities as well as promotion system of FRP were regulated from time to time through various Standing Orders issued by the competent authority, given the expanding role of policing. Keeping in view the above facts the application of the appellant was forwarded to the respondent No. 1 for solution the issue of promotion of overall FRP personals including the appellant.

4. Incorrect. In fact, the appellant was initially enlisted in District Police Kohat in the year 1986 and subsequently he was transferred and posted in FRP Unit in the year 2016. It is pertinent to mention here that there are numerous illiterate officials / officials who were initially appointed in FRP Unit and being most senior from the appellant are still awaited for their promotion on the next higher rank.
