Counsel for the appellant present.

Learned counsel argued the case at some length but when confronted with the fact that upon appeals by similarly placed persons the impugned order dated 18.02.2016 was set aside by the Tribunal on 31.07.2018 in favour of appellants therein, while the respondents were allowed to conduct denovo enquiry, she requested for withdrawal of instant appeal for filing of implementation application regarding the judgment in appeal No. 603/2016.

In view of request of learned counsel, the appeal is dismissed as withdrawn. File be consigned to the record room.

2. Arguments of the learned counsel for the parties heard and record perused.

FACTS

3. The brief facts of the cases are that the appellant and others while serving in Education Department were proceeded departmentally and major penalty of removal from service was imposed on them vide impugned order dated 18.02.2016. Feeling aggrieved an undated joint departmental appeal was filed by them, which was not responded within the stipulated period. hence, the instant service appeal.

ARGUMENTS

4. Learned counsel for the appellant argued that on the allegations of absence from duty a notice was published in daily "Mashriq" on 02.02.2016 directing the appellant and others to assume the duty. Its merits to mention here that the notice was published during the winter vacations in Kurram Agency. He further clarified that all the educational institutions were closed for winter vacations from 25th December 2015 to 29th February 2016, in Kurram Agency, as it evident from the attendance register available on record. He further contended that in the aforementioned notice name of 53 employees were mentioned but in the impugned order major penalty of removal from service was imposed on only 17 employees, hence, the impugned order was discriminatory and against the spirit of Article-25 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan. The respondents have failed to correctly mention the exact date from which the appellant and others were absent. Various requirements prescribed in the rules were not observed, so the impugned order was void ab-initio.

5. Learned Additional Advocate General argued that all the affected civil servants were required to file separate departmental appeal but in the instant case joint departmental appeal was filed in violation of rules. Major penalty of removal from service was imposed on the appellant and others after observance all codal formalities.

CONCLUSION.

6. On the allegations of willful absence from duty, the appellant and others were proceeded departmentally and upon conclusion, major penalty of removal from service was imposed on them vide impugned order dated 18.02.2016. It is strange that the respondents failed to mention the exact date from which the appellant was absent from duty. Learned Additional AG when confronted on this point, candidly conceded that the record was silent on this score. He was further confronted on the point that the impugned order was issued and the period of absence showed in the impugned order related to winter vacations but he was unable to give an convincing reply. Despite opportunities on the previous date of hearing the respondents failed to produce record about service of notices at the home address of the appellant and others employees. It has also not been clarified that why action were taken against only 17 employees whereas names of 53 employees were mentioned in the notice published in daily "Mashriq" on 02.02.2016. Action taken by the respondents appeared discriminatory and violative of Article-25 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan. It can be stated safely inferred that the procedure laid down in the rules was not followed by the respondents before issuing the impugned order and as such the appellant and others were condemned unheard.

The intervening period may be treated as leave without pay. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.
