Deputy District Attorney for the respondents present. Arguments heard and record peruse.

2. Brief facts of the case as per present service appeal are that the appellant was appointed as Chowkidar on contract basis by the competent authority vide order dated 09.05.1998. He was regularized with effect from 01.07.2008 and on superannuation age of 60 years, he was retired from service vide order dated 14.07.2017 but pensionary benefits was not granted to him therefore, he filed departmental appeal on 04.12.2017 but the same was not responded hence, the present service appeal on 26.03.2018.

3. Respondents were summoned who contested the appeal by filing of written reply/comments.

4. Learned counsel for the appellant contended that the appellant was appointed as Chowkidar on contract basis in Education Department. It was further contended that later on the service of the appellant was regularized with effect from 01.07.2008 and on superannuation age of 60 years, he was retired from service vide order dated 14.07.2017 but benefits of pension etc were not extended to the appellants on the ground that length of regular service of the appellants was less then qualifying service. It was further contended that the appellant filed departmental appeal for issuance of pension, gratuity and other benefits but the same was not responded. It was further contended that according to Rule 2.2 of West Pakistan Civil Services Pension Rules, 1963 the service of the government servant begin to qualify for pension when he takes over charge of the post to which he is first appointed. It was further contended that according to Rule 2.3 of the West Pakistan Civil Services Pension Rules, 1963 temporary and officiating service shall count for pension if he has rendered more than five years continuous temporary service for the purpose of pension or gratuity and temporary and officiating service followed by confirmation shall also count for pension or gratuity. Therefore, it was contended that the service of the appellant will be considered from the date of appointment and the same will be counted for pension and gratuity etc. The learned counsel for the appellant also relied unreported judgments of the Worthy Peshawar High Court in Writ Petition No. 1188 of 2014 decided on 09.09.2014 titled Baghi Shah-Versus-The State etc, Writ Petition No. 1590 of 2014 decided on 11.09.2014 titled Mst. Wajihat W/o Nisar Muhammad-Versus-Senior District Accounts Officer & others, Writ Petition No. 1659-P/2014 decided on 27.11.2014 titled Yaqoob Khan S/o Abdul Manan-Versus-Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa etc and Writ Petition No. 3394-P/2016 decided on 22.06.2017 titled Amir Zeb-Versus-The District Account Officer, District Nowshera etc. It was further contended that in the present service appeal the departmental appeal was filed after some delay but since the service appeal pertains to the matter of pay, pension and other emolument therefore, the limitation does not foreclosed the right of the appellant accrued to him and in such like matter the limitation does not run and relied in this regard on 2018 SCMR page 64 and 2002 PLC (C.S) page 1388 Punjab Service Tribunal and prayed that the appeals may be accepted and the department may be directed to consider the length of service of the appellant from the date of his appointment and pay pensionary benefits to the appellant.

5. On the other hand, learned Deputy District Attorney for the respondents opposed the contention of learned counsel for the appellant and contended that the appellants was appointed as Chowkidar on contract basis and he was regularized with effect from 01.07.2008. It was further contended that the appellant was retired from service on 14.07.2017 and the appellant served as he is m regular employees for less than 10 years hence, they ~~are~~ not entitled for pensionary benefits and prayed for dismissal of appeal.

6. We have heard the arguments and gone through the record available on file.
7. Perusal of the record reveals that the appellant was appointed as Chowkidar on contract basis. The record further reveals that the service of the appellant was regularized with effect from 01.07.2008. The record further reveals that the appellant was retired from service but pension and gratuity was not extended to the appellants.
8. Regarding the question of entitlement of the appellant to the pension, we, would like to reproduce the relevant rules of the West Pakistan Civil Services Pensions Rules, 1963 below, as these would be advantageous in resolving the controversy:-

“2.2. Beginning of Service-

Subject to any special rules the service of Government servant begins to qualify for pension when he takes over charge of the post to which he is first appointed.

Rule 2.3 Temporary and officiating service— Temporary and officiating service shall count for pension as indicated below:-

- (i) Government servants borne on temporary establishment who have rendered more than five years continuous temporary service for the purpose of pension or gratuity; and
- (ii) Temporary and officiating service followed by confirmation shall also count for pension or gratuity.

The rules ibid reveal that the service of government servant begins to qualify for pension from the very first day of his/her taking over the charge, irrespective of the fact whether his/her appointment and entry in to service was temporary or regular. It is also clear from sub-rule (i) that continuous temporary service of a civil servant shall also be counted for the purpose of pension and gratuity and by virtue of sub rule (ii), temporary and officiating service followed by conformation shall be counted for pension and gratuity. In this regard reliance is also placed on SCMR 1994 page 1653 titled Government of N.W.F.P through Secretary, Law, Peshawar Versus Muhammad Aslam Khan Assistant Advocate General, N.W.F.P Abbottabad where in it was held

10. We deem it appropriate to mention here that question of interpretation and true import to the term pension was raised before the august Supreme Court of Pakistan in case titled "Government of NWFP through Secretary to Government of NWFP Communication & Works Department, Peshawar Vs Muhammad Said Khan and others (PLD 1973 Supreme Court of Pakistan 514) wherein it was held that:

“It must now be taken as well settled that a person who enters government service has also something to look forward after his retirement to what are called retirement benefits, grant of pension being the most valuable of such benefits. It is equally well settled that pension like salary of a civil servant is no longer a bounty but a right acquired after putting a satisfactory service for the prescribed minimum period. A fortiori, it cannot be reduced or refused arbitrarily except to the extent and in the manner provided in the relevant rules.”

11. In case titled “Secretary To Govt: of the Punjab, Finance Department Vs M. Ismail Tayer and 269 others” 2015 PLC (CS) 296, the august Supreme Court of Pakistan was pleased to held that the pensionary benefits is not a bounty or ex-gratia payment but a right acquired in consideration of past service. Such right to pension is conferred by law and cannot be arbitrarily abridged or reduced except in accordance with such law as it is the vested right and legitimate expectation of retired civil servant.

12. In the present case the appellant was initially appointed as Chowkidar on contract basis followed by regularization with effect from 01.07.2008. The appellant has rendered temporary service for a continuous period of more than 5 years service and later on regularized and was retired. Record reveals that as a whole he has more than 10 years services at his credit. By virtue of rule 2.3 as well as Chapter-IV rule 4.4 of the West Pakistan Civil Services Pensions Rules, 1963, he has qualified the prescribed service for pensionary benefits, therefore, the objections raised by the respondents is not tenable and not supported by any rule or regulation.
