6. Incorrect. Stance of the appellant is totally devoid of merit in terms of completion of prescribed period of service because neither the Police Rules nor the Police Act prescribe any period of service as alleged by the appellant. Moreover, the appellant though hails from District Karak and transferred his lien to District Mardan, therefore, he was transferred alongwith lien to his parent District and his seniority with his colleagues will remain intact in his parent District. Since most of the Lower School Course qualified Constables of District Mardan were aggrieved as Head Constables hailing from other Districts were promoted on the vacancies of District Mardan and those whose parent District is Mardan, are waiting for their turn for promotion to the rank of Head Constables, therefore, they submitted application as result of which the lien of appellant was detached from District Mardan and attached to his District of domicile. Besides, seniority of appellant is kept intact with his colleagues of Lower School Course in his District.
7. Para pertains to record needs no comments.
8. Correct to the extent that the then Regional Police Officer, Mardan addressed a letter to Central Police Office Peshawar for seeking legal guidance.
9. Correct to the extent that in response to the aforementioned letter, the Assistant Inspector General of Police Legal Khyber Pakhtunkhwa opined that Civil Servant can retain lien for three years at permanent post when civil servant join other post in any other department. But it is worthwhile that the appellant has neither joined other department nor other post rather remained in Police Department. Moreover, para 2 of the ibid letter is also worth perusal.
10. Correct to the extent that the appellant is serving in Police Department and his lien has been transferred to his parent District where his seniority will remain intact with his colleagues there in his parent District. However, rest of the para is bereft of any legal footing.
11. Incorrect. Stance taken by the appellant is totally devoid of merit because it is pertinent to mention here that the appellant after his transfer to District Mardan was promoted to the rank of Head Constable on the vacancy of District Mardan much before his colleagues of his District of Domicile and till date enjoyed all the facilities extended to the promoted officers. However, when the constables of District Mardan qualified Lower School Course and brought on promotion list C-I, are waiting for their turn for promotion to officiating Head Constables, have submitted applications that Police Officers of other Districts have occupied their vacancies as result of which they have suffered irreparable loss in terms of their due promotion. Resultantly lien of all those Head Constables including the appellant was detached who though hail from other Districts were promoted against the vacancies of District Mardan.
12. That the appeal of the appellant being not maintainable is liable to be dismissed on the following grounds amongst the others.

REPLY ON GROUNDS:

- A. Incorrect. Plea taken by the appellant is not plausible because order passed by the competent authority is legal, lawful and according to norms of natural justice. Hence, liable to be maintained.
- B. Incorrect. Plea taken by the appellant is not plausible because every Police Officer is duty bound to perform his duties to the best of his ability. As in this department no room lies for lethargy. Besides, transfer of lien of the appellant to his parent district is legal and lawful hence required to be maintained.
- C. Incorrect. Stance of the appellant is totally ill based, hence, liable to be set at naught.
- D. Para already explained needs no comments.
- E. Incorrect. The appellant has been treated according to the norms of natural justice and law/ rules.
- F. Incorrect. Stance of the appellant is not maintainable as order passed by the competent authority is in accordance with law/ rules hence needs no interference.
- G. That Respondent also seeks permission of this Honorable Tribunal to seek additional grounds at the time of arguments.

PRAYER:-

Keeping in view the above stated facts it is most humbly prayed that the appeal of the appellant being not maintainable, may very kindly be dismissed, with costs please.
