JUDGMENT

NIAZ MUHAMMAD KHAN, CHAIRMAN: - Arguments of the learned counsel for the parties heard and record perused.

FACTS

2. The appellant tendered resignation on 04.12.2015 which was accepted on the same day. Against this acceptance order the appellant filed a departmental appeal on 14.12.2015 which was not decided within statutory period and thereafter the appellant filed the present service appeal on 22.03.2016.

ATTACHED

ARGUMENTS

3. The Learned counsel for the appellant argued that the resignation was not voluntary rather it was taken forcibly by the DHO in league with the law enforcement agencies. That the reason was that there were some allegations against the appellant regarding theft of some medicines from the official store. In this respect he also pressed into service news clipping in the daily "Ham Awam" dated 08.12.2015 unfolding the episode of the theft by the appellant along with his co-accused Sajjad Ali. That this resignation was taken by the authority for the said reason. The learned counsel for the appellant relied upon a judgment reported as 2005-SCMR 1194 wherein their lordship held that acceptance of resignation on the same day was not proper on the request of a civil servant.

4. On the other hand the learned AAG argued that the appellant had submitted application for resignation duly thumb impressed by him. That the appellant did not deny the said resignation. That the authority was competent to accept the resignation. That the resignation could be withdrawn before its acceptance and in this respect he relied upon a judgment reported as 20007 SCMR 792.

CONCLUSION

5. The judgment relied upon by the learned AAG pertains to a position where a civil servant after tendering resignation (voluntarily) takes it back before its acceptance. In the resent case the appellant has not taken the resignation back because he had no time to take back his resignation. His case is covered by the

ATTESTED

 K...
 ...
 ...

judgment entitled "Muhammad Zahoor versus Registrar Lahore High Court Lahore" reported as 2005 SCMR 1194. In this reported judgment the authority accepted the resignation of Naib Qasid on the same day without probing the voluntariness of the resignation. In the present case it is crystal clear that the appellant was forced to resign due to his involvement in theft case which has been accepted by the respondents in their comments by further adding that an inquiry is ~~is~~ pending. It means that the appellant was made to resign from his position otherwise he was to face the music in the shape of criminal case and departmental proceedings. Such conduct on the part of the department is unwarranted and not in accordance with the settled rules of service and discipline. The authority was bound to have taken disciplinary action against the appellant in case he was involved in some theft of official property. The authority instead of resorting to disciplinary proceedings took resignation of the appellant and then accepted the same on the same day. The authority had therefore, also caused loss to the government exchequer because in the event of disciplinary proceedings there were chances of recovery of loss to the government otherwise too there should have been a proper inquiry which could also unfold the names of others, if any, involved in the episode of selling the government medicine in the open market. The appellant promptly preferred the departmental appeal before the appellate authority by disclosing the whole affair as he had no time of withdrawing his resignation.

6. Consequently the present appeal is accepted and the appellant is reinstated in service. The intervening period shall be treated as leave of the kind due and if no leave is due then extraordinary leave may be granted to him. The department is however at liberty to hold departmental proceedings against the appellant if he was involved in the theft case. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.

ATTESTED
