Our this single judgment shall also dispose of service appeal titled Wakeel Khan-Versus-Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa through Secretary Elementary & Secondary Education Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Peshawar and others bearing No. 1213/2013 and service appeal titled Amir Aman-Versus--Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa through Secretary Elementary & Secondary Education Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Peshawar and others bearing

No. 1214/2013 being identical nature arising out from the same law, facts and circumstances.

2. This appeal has been filed under Section-4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974 against the order dated 4.10.2013 whereby the appellant was retired from service on superannuation but without extending the benefits of pension. The appellant also filed departmental appeal on 14.05.2014 but the same was not responded hence, the present service appeal on 19.08.2014.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant contended that the appellant was appointed as Class-IV Chowkidar on pay of Rs. 1200/- per month on (fixed) on 12.10.1995 in Education Department. It was further contended that later on the service of the appellant was regularized on 30.07.2008. It was further contended that the appellant was retired from service on 04.10.2013 but benefits of pension etc was not extended to the appellant on the ground that length of the service of the appellant was less than qualifying service. It was further contended that the appellant filed departmental appeal for issuance of pension, gratuity and other benefits but the same was not responded. It was further contended that according to Rule 2.2 of West Pakistan Civil Services Pension Rules, 1963 the service of the government servant begin to qualify for pension when he takes over charge of the post to which he is first appointed. It was further contended that according to Rule 2.3 of the West Pakistan Civil Services Pension Rules, 1963 temporary and officiating service shall count for pension if he has rendered more than five years continuous temporary service for the purpose of pension or gratuity and temporary and officiating service followed by confirmation shall also count for pension or gratuity. It was further contended that the NWFP Civil Servant (Amendment Bill), 2005 was passed by the Provincial Assembly on 5th July 2005 and assented by the Governor of the Province on 12th July 2005 whereby section 19 was amended and all the employees of the Provincial Government selected for appointment in the prescribed manner to the post on or after 1st July 2001 but on contract basis were deemed to be appointed on regular basis. However, they were held disentitled for the pensionary benefits. It was further contended that section- 19 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Civil Servants Act, 1973 was further amended by the Khyber

Pakhtunkhwa Civil Servants (Amendment) Act, 2013 and the person selected for appointment on contract basis were declared to be deemed as regular employ and subsequently were held entitled for pensionary benefits. Therefore, it was contended that the service of the appellant will be considered from the date of appointment i.e 12.10.1995 and the same will be counted for pension and gratuity etc. The learned counsel for the appellant also relied unreported judgments of the Worthy Peshawar High Court in Writ Petition No. 1188 of 2014 decided on 09.09.2014 titled Baghi Shah-Versus-The State etc, Writ Petition No. 1590 of 2014 decided on 11.09.2014 titled Mst. Wajihat W/o Nisar Muhammad-Versus-Senior District Accounts Officer & others, Writ Petition No. 1659-P/2014 decided on 27.11.2014 titled Yaqoob Khan S/o Abdul Manan-Versus-Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa etc and Writ Petition No. 3394-P/2016 decided on 22.06.2017 titled Amir Zeb-Versus-The District Account Officer, District Nowshera etc. It was further contended that in the present service appeal the departmental appeal was filed after some delay but since the service appeal pertains to the matter of pay, pension and other emolument therefore, the limitation does not fore closed the right of the appellant accrued to him, in such like matter the limitation does not run and relied in this regard on 2002 P.L.C (C.S) 1388 Punjab Service Tribunal and prayed that the appeal may be accepted and the department may be directed to consider the length of service of the appellant from the date of his appointment and pay pensionary benefits to the appellant.

4. On the other hand, the learned Assistant Advocate General Mr. Kabirullah Khattak opposed the contention of learned counsel for the appellant and contended that the appellant was appointed as Class-IV Chowkidar on pay of Rs. 1200/- per month on adhoc relief on (fixed) vide order dated 12.10.1995 and he was regularized vide order dated 30.07.2008 with effect from 01.07.2008. It was further contended that the appellant was retired on 04.10.2013 and the appellant served as regular employee only for five years hence, he is not entitled for pensionary benefits. In this regard he also relied on unreported judgment of the Worthy Peshawar High Court passed in Writ Petition No. 23-P/2015 decided on 24.06.2015 titled Sher Badshah S/o Amir Badshah-

M. H. Amin
17.10.2017

Versus- Senior District Accounts Officer Nowshera etc and PLD 1990 Supreme Court page 719 and prayed for dismissal of appeal.

5. We have heard the arguments and gone through the record available on file.

6. Perusal of the record reveals that the appellant was appointed as Class-IV Chowkidar on pay of Rs. 1200/- per month on fixed pay under relevant rules on 12.10.1995. The record further reveals that the service of the appellant was regularized on 30.07.2008. The record further reveals that the appellant was retired from service on 04.10.2013 but pension and gratuity was not extended to the appellant.

7. Regarding the question of entitlement of the appellant to the pension, we, would like to reproduce the relevant rules of the West Pakistan Civil Services Pensions Rules, 1963 below, as these would be advantageous in resolving the controversy:-

"2.2. Beginning of Service-

Subject to any special rules the service of Government servant begins to qualify for pension when he takes over charge of the post to which he is first appointed.

Rule 2.3 Temporary and officiating service Temporary and officiating service shall count for pension as indicated below:-

- (i) Government servants borne on temporary establishment who have rendered more than five years continuous temporary service for the purpose of pension or gratuity; and
- (ii) Temporary and officiating service followed by confirmation shall also count for pension or gratuity.

8. The rules ibid reveal that the service of government servant begins to qualify for pension from the very first day of his/her taking over the charge, irrespective of the fact whether his/her appointment and entry in to service was temporary or regular. It is also clear from sub-rule (i) that continuous temporary service of a civil servant shall also be counted for the purpose of pension and gratuity and by virtue of sub rule (ii), temporary and officiating service followed by conformation shall be counted for pension and gratuity.

9. We deem it appropriate to mention here that question of interpretation and true import to the term pension was raised before the august Supreme Court of Pakistan in case titled "Government of NWFP through Secretary to Government of NWFP Communication & Works Department, Peshawar Vs Muhammad Said Khan and others (PLD 1973 Supreme Court of Pakistan 514)" wherein it was held that:

"It must now be taken as well settled that a person who enters government service has also something to look forward after his retirement to what are called retirement benefits, grant of pension being the most valuable of such benefits. It is equally well settled that pension like salary of a civil servant is no longer a bounty but a right acquired after putting a satisfactory service for the prescribed minimum period. A fortiori, it cannot be reduced or refused arbitrarily except to the extent and in the manner provided in the relevant rules."

10. In case titled "Secretary To Govt. of the Punjab, Finance Department Vs M. Ismail Tayer and 269 others" 2015 FLC (CS) 296, the august Supreme Court of Pakistan was pleased to held that the pensionary benefits is not a bounty or ex-gratia payment but a right acquired in consideration of past service. Such right to pension is conferred by law and cannot be arbitrarily abridged or reduced except in accordance with such law as it is the vested right and legitimate expectation of retired civil servant.

11. In the present case the appellant was initially appointed on 12.10.1995 followed by his regularization on 30.07.2008. Though the appellant has rendered temporary service for a continuous period of more than 12 years and 9 months service and regular service of more than 5 years and 2 months meaning thereby that as a whole he has more than 17 years service at his credit. By virtue of rule 2.3 as well as Chapter-IV rule 4.4 of the West Pakistan Civil Services Pensions Rules, 1963, he has qualified the prescribed service for pensionary benefits, therefore, the objections raised by the respondents is not tenable and not supported by any rule or regulation. Judgment of hon'ble Peshawar High Court in Mst. Wajihat case (Writ Petition No. 1590-P/2014), Baghi Shah's case (Writ

12. In the light of the above discussion we are constrained to accept the appeal and direct the respondent-department to finalize the pension case of the appellant and grant pensionary benefits to him. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record room.
