23.01.2019 Learned counsel for the appellant present. Preliminary arguments heard.

Learned counsel for the appellant argued inter-alia that the appellant who is serving as PST, was transferred vide order dated 24.01.2018 from Khyber to District Bajaur however until yet the respondent No.6 has not released the salary of the appellant on the pretext that the LPC of the appellant has not been communicated to respondent No.6; that the appellant submitted departmental appeal for the issuance of LPC and release of salaries but to no avail hence the present service appeal.

Points raised need consideration. The appeal is admitted for regular hearing subject to all legal objections. The appellant is directed to deposit process fee and security within 10 days thereafter notices be issued to the respondents for written reply/comments. To come up for written reply/comments on 20.03.2019 before S.B

Appellant with counsel and Asstt. A.G for the respondents ~~with~~ Munawar Khan, SST present.

The reply of District Education Officer, Khyber/ respondent No. 3 suggests that a show cause notice was served upon the appellant through two newspapers and thereafter he was struck off from the service through order dated 15.01.2019. The copy of order to that effect is, however, not available on the record.

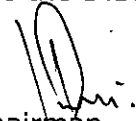

Learned AAG states that the respondents denied the genuineness of appointment of appellant, therefore, his appointment order, regularization order, the advertisement against he applied and minutes of Departmental Selection Committee shall be necessary for just conclusion of the matter in hand.

In the circumstances, we consider it appropriate to require the parties to produce the requisite record on or before next date of hearing.

Adjourned to 22.04.2021 for hearing before the D.B.

Learned counsel for the appellant present. Mr. Muhammad Rasheed, Deputy District Attorney alongwith Mr. Hidayatullah ADEO for the respondents present.

The case was argued at some length, learned counsel for the appellant and learned Deputy District Attorney representing the respondents referred to the reply of the respondents and the learned law officer pointed out that the appointment order of the appellant was fake and bogus. Learned Deputy District Attorney also referred to annexure C vide which, consequent upon the recommendation of some inquiry committee, the name of the appellant was struck off by District Education Officer, Khyber. When asked about the inquiry and other documents pertaining to this particular case as well as the action taken against the officials involved in the matter, in case the stance of the respondents is true regarding the appointment etc of the appellant being void, the officer/official who facilitated the appellant to get salary punched and released from Account Office concerned. The respondents are directed to appear in person alongwith all the relevant record to apprise the Tribunal about the detail of this case. Case to come up for arguments before the D.B on 27.06.2022.
