5. The contention of learned counsel for petitioners that the petitioners have improved their qualification, therefore, they be considered for promotion w.e.f the date wherefrom their other colleagues have been considered, is unpersuasive for the reasons that such a writ cannot be issued under Article-199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, as Article 212 of the Constitution of 1973 debar this Court to interfere in the matter pertaining to terms and conditions of a civil servant.

APPEAL U/S 4 OF THE SERVICES TRIBUNAL ACT, 1974.

Respectfully Sheweth;

- 1) That the appellant had joined the services in education department

(Copy of the detailed list showing the school-wise vacancies and advertisement for recruitment are Annexure "B and C" respectively).

- I) That the appellant has not been dealt with in accordance with law and equity and the appellant has been made as scapegoat who has been penalized for no fault on his part.
- J) That the respondents have exceeded their powers and jurisdiction by enjoying their own innovation and monopoly; creating problems for the entire family of the appellant, by giving him discriminative treatment which amounts to deprive the family of the appellant including his school going children from their breathing and livelihood which is unwarranted by the law of the land.
- K) That valuable right was accrued to the appellant whereas their fundamental valuable rights have been encroached by the respondents on their personal whims and wishes and such encroachment is hit by the command of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973.

- L) That the respondents have transgressed their powers and the appellant has been denied his due fundamental rights of being treated fairly, and equally in accordance with law whereas the appellant is/ was highly, legally eligible on the basis of seniority-cum-fitness and that too there are sufficient sanctioned vacant posts are/ were available and thus valuable rights have been accrued to the appellant which have taken legal effect and such legal rights could not be taken away with a single stroke of pen.

JUDGMENT

Date of hearing.....09.01.2018.....

Petitioner(s) by Mr. Muhammad Usman Khan Turlandi, Advocate.

Respondent (s) by Mr. Muhammad Riaz Khan, AAG.

ROOH-UL-AMIN KHAN, J:- By invoking the constitutional jurisdiction of this Court under Article-199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, petitioner seek their promotion to the post of SST (BPS-16) on the basis of seniority cum fitness against 75% quota reserved for promotion.

2. According to the contents of the writ petition, the petitioners joined the services in the respondents department and were lastly promoted to the posts of Senior Certified Teacher (SCT) and Senior Primary School Teacher (SPST) respectively and are performing their duties as such. The respondents in utter violation of Notification No. SO (PE)4-5/SSRC/Meeting/2013/Teaching Cadre, dated 24.7.2014, whereby 75% quota for the posts of SST (BPS-16) has been served /sanctioned for promotion on the basis of seniority cum fitness and 25% for initial recruitment, advertised 62 vacant posts of Senior Science Teacher (BPS-16) to be filled up through fresh / initial recruitment, without reserving a single vacancy for promotion amongst the Senior Certified Teachers or Senior Primary School Teachers.

3. Learned AAG contended that the respondents-department has already considered the case of petitioners for promotion under their specified 75% quota, however they were lacking the requisite qualification, therefore, could not be considered. He pointed out that the petitioner No. 1 and 2 have qualified BSc examination in Math-A, Maths-B and Statistics and do not fulfill the criteria. Similarly petitioner No.7 has passed the BA/BSc in third division which is also does not come under the criteria of 75% quota. He stated that candidate who improved his qualification and got eligibility and fitness in accordance with the criteria shall be considered for promotion to the post of SST in the next meeting of Department Promotion Committee.

4. It is manifest from the comments that the respondents have not denied the quota of promotion @ 75% however the petitioners were considered and denied to be considered for promotion on the ground of lacking the requisite qualification and not fulfilling the criteria, hence the department has not committed any illegality or irregularity.

5. The contention of learned counsel for petitioners that the petitioners have improved their qualification, therefore, they be considered for promotion w.e.f the date wherefrom their other colleagues have been considered, is unpersuasive for the reasons that such a writ cannot be issued under Article-199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, as Article 212 of the Constitution of 1973 debar this Court to interfere in the matter pertaining to terms and conditions of a civil servant.

6. For the reasons given hereinabove, the instant petition is disposed of accordingly. However, the petitioners would be at liberty to approach the proper forum, if so advised at the relevant time.
