

05th April, 2023

1. Appellant alongwith his counsel present. Mr. Fazal Shah Mohmand, Additional Advocate General for the respondents present.

2. Arguments were opened by the learned counsel for the appellant when it was found that the appeal was not supported by the relevant documents, on which the learned counsel for the appellant sought permission to file the supporting documents. The learned Additional Advocate General also submitted that none of the respondents were present on many occasions which became a reason of striking of their right to file reply. He submitted that in the interest of justice especially when the appellant is going to file additional documents in support of the appeal, an opportunity may be given to the respondents to file a proper reply in this case so as to arrive just and proper conclusion of the case. Yet in the interest of justice, the appellant may file documents which he desires to place on file in support of the appeal and the respondents may also file reply within seven days of filing of the additional documents. The appellant may do so within seven days positively by date 12.04.2023 where-after reply shall be submitted within next seven days positively at the Principal seat Peshawar. To come up for arguments on this appeal before D.B at Camp Court Swat on 04.05.2023. Parcha Peshi is given to the parties.
