S.A No. 1619/2021

12.08.2021 File of the main appeal fixed before the D.B for 06.12.2021 has been requisitioned in pursuance to an application submitted on behalf of the appellant for restraint order against the respondents. The said application is placed on file. Among other reasons given in the application it is mentioned that albeit the appeal is pending but appellant has served out the penalty and in this backdrop of the matter, he is entitled to be promoted against the post of Office Assistant BPS-16. The appellant/applicant contends that the department is going to fill the vacant post of Assistant by promotion. If the respondents are not restraint from issuing of promotion order then the appellant will suffer irreparable loss and his appeal would become infructuous, as the appellant will be rendered junior to his juniors. In view of the points discussed before, the matter be fixed before the D.B today for appropriate order.
