Counsel for the appellant present.

An application for extension of time to deposit security and process fee has been submitted by learned counsel. It has been noted in the application that the requisite fee has not been deposited due to lack of knowledge.

Process fee & Security as required on 02.05.2019 has not been deposited but in order to extend opportunity to appellant ~~for decision of his case on merits~~, instant application is allowed. He is required to deposit the requisite fee within three working days from today. Thereafter, notices be issued to the respondents for submission of written reply/comments.

Counsel for the appellant present.

Contends, inter-alia, that the allegations levelled against the appellant were in terms of bad moral reputation, being financially corrupt, having proved links with NCP vehicle smugglers and using extra departmental influence for choice postings. In view of nature of allegations a proper and comprehensive enquiry was required to be conducted on departmental level against an accused. Pro & contra evidence was required to be recorded in such proceedings. The respondents did not adhere to legal requirements in the proceedings, therefore, the punishment awarded to the appellant was not sustainable.

In view of the above, instant appeal is admitted for regular hearing. The appellant is directed to deposit security and process fee within 10 days. Thereafter, notices be issued to the respondents. To come up for written reply/comments on 27.06.2019 before S.B.
