Appellant in person present.

Vide pervious order dated 15.04.2022, the appellant was directed to deposit security and process fee, however no stamp regarding depositing of the same was found affixed at the margin of the previous order sheet and notices have also not been issued to the respondents. On query, the appellant stated at the bar that he has already deposited security and process fee. Reader of the court was handed over the case file to inquire from the concerned official regarding the depositing of security and process fee. On returning back, the Reader told that the concerned official has told him that the appellant had actually deposited security and process fee on 15.04.2022, but the required stamp was not affixed by him at the margin of order sheet due to inadvertence. It was observed that the concerned official has affixed the stamp today but the date has been mentioned as 15.04.2022. Notices to the respondents have not been issued as the required stamp regarding the depositing of security and process fee was not affixed by the concerned official, therefore, explanation in this respect be called from him. Notice be issued to the respondents and to come up for reply/comments as well as arguments on 18.08.2022 before the D.B.
