Appellant present through counsel. Mr. Umair Azam, Additional Advocate General for respondents present.

Yesterday, we have heard learned counsel for the appellant and learned Additional Advocate General on behalf of respondents on the only point that the impugned action was not justified because the appellant had reached maximum stage of his service. We have considered the point but would like to listen the arguments of learned counsel for appellant on merits also. To come up on 18.04.2023 before D.B. P.P given to the parties.
