

16.05.2023

01. Learned counsel for the appellant present.

02. After hearing arguments at certain length, it transpired that the appellant's case was adjustment in the Surplus Pool Policy back in 2004 which is still under correspondence between the office of Deputy Commissioner Bannu and Assistant Director Local Government & Rural Development Department, Bannu for rectification of the adjustment order. The case, as such, seems premature as no final order has yet been issued. The appellant may, therefore, wait for logical conclusion of his case and come to the Tribunal after final order is passed, if he found himself aggrieved from. The appeal is disposed of accordingly. Consign.

03. Pronounced in open court at Peshawar and given under my hand and seal of the Tribunal this 16th day of May, 2023.
