Learned counsel for the appellant very fairly, frankly and in a straightforward manner assisted the Tribunal by saying that the transfer order was challenged on the ground of premature tenure and the tenure of the appellant has been completed during the pendency of this appeal, therefore, this appeal has rendered fruitless which may be disposed of accordingly. Learned counsel has however, added that the reason of transfer was a letter dated 11th November, 2020, wherein, the name of the appellant is not figured, therefore, the transfer order to the extent of the appellant on the ground mentioned in the transfer order should not affect the career of the appellant. Disposed of accordingly. Consign.
