BEFORE THE KHYBER PAKHTUNKHWA SERVICES TRIBUNAL, PESHAWAR

Execution/Implementation Petition No. 250/2023 Qaiser Khan & Others

In

Service appeal No. 1231/2020

Qaiser Khan, Assistant (BPS-16), at Mines & Mineral Department at Civil Secretariat.

VS

1. Govt. of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa through Chief Secretary, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar & others.

REPLY ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT

REPLY

1. Correct to the extent that the Service Appeal No. 1231/2020 was decided in favour of the Petitioner, however, the said judgment has been challenged in Supreme Court of Pakistan through CPLA.
2. Incorrect. The Judgment of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal has been implemented in letter and spirit and the petitioner has been conditionally adjusted in Establishment Department, Civil Secretariat Peshawar vide notification No.SOE-IV(E&AD)/1-2/2022 dated 01.11.2022 (F/A) till final outcome of Judgment of Supreme Court of Pakistan and his seniority and other claims will be settled in due course of time.
3. Incorrect. The Judgement of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal has been implemented in true letter and spirit and no violation has been made.
4. Incorrect. Since the CPLA No.358-P/2022 dated 25.04.2022 filed in the Supreme Court of Pakistan in the instant appeal is pending for adjudication, therefore, his seniority and other benefits related to his service will be determined upon final outcome of CPLA. However, the petitioner is conditionally part and parcel of Establishment Department for all intents and purposes. It is further added that Civil Secretariat employees have filed 12(2) CPC Appeal No. 642/2022, Muhammad Sadiq & 1041 others VS Hanif-ur-Rehman & others with the plea that they were condemned unheard which directly affects their seniority and still pending for adjudication before the Hon'able Tribunal.
5. Incorrect. The Judgment Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal has been implemented in letter and spirit.
6. As explained in Para-4 above.
7. Incorrect. The direction and order of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal has been fully complied in its true spirit and no right of anyone has been violated.
8. No Comments.

It is, therefore, graciously prayed that the Execution/Implementation of Execution Petition No.250/2023 in Service Appeal No.1231/2020 may be stopped till outcome of CPLA filed by Provincial Government before the Supreme Court of Pakistan.
