

21st June, 2023

1. Junior to counsel for the appellant.
2. The appeal file shows that the learned counsel for the appellant had submitted reply to the office objections and the Registrar had forwarded the same on 17.04.2023 to the undersigned for passing appropriate orders, but without any orders, the matter was fixed before the bench. The concerned official shall explain why the matter is fixed before the bench without getting any order of the undersigned. Since the matter was once placed before the bench on 27.04.2023, therefore, the appellant may advance preliminary arguments on 23.10.2023 before the S.B at Camp Court, Abbottabad. Last chance is given to the appellant. P.P given to the appellant.
