1. Learned counsel for the appellant present. Mr. Asad Ali Khan, Assistant Advocate General for the respondents present.

2. The private respondents had been putting appearance either in person or through their counsel on some of the dates but their appearance was not marked on the last two dates, therefore, it is deemed appropriate that a notice be issued to the private respondents for 31.07.2023 before D.B. The learned counsel for the appellant submitted that he had moved an application for amendment of the appeal which he does not press for the time being. He may make another application if he so desired but with solid grounds. P.P given to the parties.
