JUDGMENT

JUSTICE (R) SALIM KHAN, CHAIRMAN.-The present appeal No. 612 of 2008 by Muhammad Iqbal Khattak and appeal No. 613 of 2009 by Ahmad Khan involved similar questions of law, therefore, these are taken together for arguments and disposal.

2. Muhammad Iqbal Khattak was promoted as Tehsildar on regular basis vide order dated 28.12.1988. He was promoted to PCS(E.G) (BPS-17) on temporary basis vide notification dated 06.03.1996. He contended that many posts became vacant, but the appellant was promoted to (BPS-17) on regular basis on 19.2.2008 with immediate effect, instead of ante-dating of his promotion to the date on which the vacancy fell to his turn in the seniority lists of officers of PCS (E.G). His departmental appeal was rejected on 22.03.2008. The present appeal was filed on 16.4.2008 which is within time. The case of Ahmad Khan (Appellant) is similar to the case of Muhammad Iqbal Khattak on facts also. His appeal is also within time.

3. The respondents contested the appeal on many grounds, including the ground that no one could claim a vested right in promotion or in the terms and conditions for promotion to a higher post.

4. We heard the arguments and perused the record.

5. The learned counsel for the appellants contended that the appellants were temporarily posted to BPS-17 post on 06.3.1996, but they remained silent, because they did not have a vested right for promotion to a higher post. The appellants have already been considered for promotion and have been found eligible and fit for regular promotion to BPS-17 post, therefore, the principles embodied in the judgment of the August Supreme Court of Pakistan reported as 1990 SCMR 1321 are not applicable to their cases. In fact, the vacancies had become available for the appellants as early as on 30.11.1999, and it was the responsibility of the official respondents to expeditiously deal with the cases of the appellants for their regular promotion. The appellants could not be punished for no fault on their side, or for delay caused by the official respondents in processing the cases of the appellants. He relied on 1997, PLC (C.S) 77, wherein it has been held in para 3 as under:-

"On behalf of the Government it is contended that no civil servant has a right to claim that he should be promoted from a back date, even though a vacancy may be existing on the date from which the promotion is being claimed. This is no doubt true but there are no orders by the Government that the respondents/petitioners should be held up for some time. The delay in making the promotions occurred entirely due to the reason that the officials of the Education Department could not carry out a fairly simple exercise within a reasonable period. In the circumstances it will not be appropriate for this Civil Petition to interfere with the order of the Service Tribunal. Leave is refused."

This judgment was in the petition for leave to appeal against the judgment dated 19.02.1995 of the Punjab Service Tribunal. It is worth-mentioning that ments cited as 1990 SCMR 1321 and cited as 1997 PLC (C.S) 77 are in two different aspects of the same subject.

BY

6. Ante-dating of promotion, after consideration of the candidate aspiring for such promotion, after he was found eligible and fit for such promotion and is promoted, is an established principle of law. Such a candidate cannot be punished for any delay caused by the department in processing his case for promotion. The order of promotion, therefore, has to be ante-dated to the date on which the vacancy for his turn became available or to the date on which he actually took charge of the post on officiating/acting charge basis, whichever is later.

7. The A.G.P contended that the present appeals were miserably time-barred and both the appellants were estopped by their own conduct to file the present appeals. In fact, the principle embodied in the judgment reported as 1990 SCMR 1321 was applicable to the cases of the appellants from 06.3.1996 to 18.2.2008. They could not claim promotion as of right. The principle embodied in the judgment reported as 1997 PLC (C.S) 77 became applicable to their case on 19.2.2008. Cause of action arose to the appellants for claiming ante-dation of their promotion as prayed for only when their cases were considered for promotion, they were found eligible and fit for promotion, and their promotion orders were issued, though with immediate effect. They filed their departmental appeals within time from the date of the impugned order dated 19.2.2008, and their appeals were rejected on 22.3.2008. They filed Service Appeals on 16.04.2008. The departmental appeals as well as the Service Appeals were well within time.

8. The A.G.P further contended that, according to the proviso contained in sub-section (2) of Section 22 of the N.W.F.P Civil Servants Act 1973; "no representation shall lie on matters relating to the determination of fitness of a person to hold a particular post or to be promoted to a higher post or grade." Judgment cited as 1990 SCMR 1321 was, then, applicable and appellants could not file representation. This stage has already passed. The appellants have been considered for holding the higher post after their promotion to that higher post, and their fitness for such promotion and holding of post has already been determined. The judgment cited as 1997

N.W.F.P.

(C.S) 77 has become applicable: after determination of fitness of the appellants. The question in these cases is not the determination of fitness but is the right of ante-dation of their promotion. The appellants had vested right for consideration of promotion on their turn, whenever it was, and, when found fit on determination of fitness, at any stage, they had a right to claim ante-dation of their promotion to the dates on which the vacancies were available for their respective turns or from the dates on which they actually took the charge of their respective posts, whichever were later in time.

9. The A.G.P also contended that according to sub-rule (6) of Rule 9 of the N.W.F.P Civil Servants (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 1989 "acting charge appointment shall not confer any vested right for regular promotion to the post held on acting charge basis." The appellants have never claimed any vested right for regular promotion to the post which they held on acting charge basis, on the basis of acting charge appointment. In fact, they did not have such a right. They remained silent for a long time, knowing that they did not have such a right on the basis of acting charge appointment. They, however, had a vested right, as civil servants, for consideration for promotion, when the authority was to consider someone for promotion against the vacancy. No other person could be considered till the appellants were so considered. They, therefore, had a vested right for ante-dation of their promotion only when they were regularly promoted, but from the date when the vacancy became available for their turn.

10. The A.G.P further contended that, according to the North West Frontier Province, Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007, notified on 11.05.2007 vide No. SOE.II(ED)2(14)2007, The NWFP Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 were repealed. He was of the view that the N.W.F.P Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007 had come into force at once w.e.f. 11.05.2007, while the orders of promotion of the appellants were issued on 19.02.2008. He submitted that the promotion orders were covered by the new rules, therefore, the appellants could not claim any benefit out of the already repealed rules of 1997. In order to clarify this controversy, it is necessary to reproduce the provisions of the N.W.F.P Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007.

SECRETARY
N.W.F.P. Tribunal

Repeal: The North-West Frontier Province Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 shall stand repealed after the retirement of existing incumbents of both the cadres. Separate seniority list of both the cadres shall be maintained under the existing rules and they shall be promoted at the ratio of 50:50. The existing incumbents of PCS (E.G) and (S.G) in different pay scales, for the purpose of their promotion, shall continue to be governed under the said service rules till the retirement of the last such incumbent."

The above rule, by itself, clarifies that the rules of 1997 shall not stand repealed before the retirement of the existing incumbents of both the cadres of Secretariat/Executive Groups, and shall remain in force till the retirement of the last such incumbent. It further clarified that separate seniority list of both the cadres shall be maintained under the existing rules. The existing rules for such incumbents are the N.W.F.P Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997. It was also clarified that such incumbents shall be promoted at the ratio of 50:50. It means that out of each two vacancies, one vacancy shall be given to Secretariat Group, while another vacancy shall be given to the Executive Group. Further clarification is to the effect that the existing incumbents of PCS (E.G) and (S.G) in different pay scales shall continue to be governed under the rules of 1997 for the purpose of their promotion, and this process is to continue till the retirement of last such incumbent. Both the appellants belonged to the Executive Group of Civil Servants. They were to be governed under the N.W.F.P Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 before 11.05.2007, and they have to be governed under the above mentioned rules of 1997 till the retirement of the last incumbent of a post in Secretariat Group/Executive Group.

11. The cases of the appellants are, therefore, to be governed in accordance with the provisions of Section 8 (quoted above) of the new N.W.F.P Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007. The record shows that vacancies were available for the appellants but they were not promoted at the due time and their cases for promotion were delayed unnecessarily without any fault of the appellants. They, therefore, are entitled to ante-dation of their promotion, against the first available vacancy falling to the turn of each of them or from the date of taking over the charge of that vacancy on officiating/acting charge basis, whichever is later.

ATTESTED
[Signature]

2. In the light of the above, we accept both the appeals, and direct the official respondents to ante-date the promotion of each of the two appellants to the respective dates on which a vacancy became available for the respective turn of the appellants or from the respective dates of their taking charge of such vacancy on officiating/acting charge basis, whichever is later. The appellants are entitled to the costs of their respective litigation from the official respondents.

J U D G M E N T

EJAZ AFZAL KHAN, J. --- These appeals with the leave of the Court have arisen out of the judgment dated 11.3.2009 of the Service Tribunal whereby appeals filed by the respondents were allowed.

2. The points raised and noted while granting leave read as under:-

"We have heard the learned counsel at some length. We are inclined to grant leave inter-alia on the point as to whether the legal and factual aspects of the controversy have been dilated upon and decided by the Tribunal in accordance with relevant Rules i.e. Rule 8 of the NWFP; Provincial Civil Service (Secretariat/Executive Group) Rules, 1997 and Rule 9(6) of the NWFP Civil Servants (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 1989. It is also to be examined as to whether that stop-gap-arrangement can be equated to that of regular promotion and besides that the order passed by the learned Service Tribunal could be made applicable to all Tehsildars who are entitled to promotion. Since a short question of law is involved in the matter, therefore, the case be listed after 15 days subject to limitation. In the meanwhile operations of the assigned judgment shall remain suspended".

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the appellants contended that though the Governor of the Province in consultation with the Provincial Selection Board was pleased to order the promotion of the respondents in BPS-16 as Extra Assistant Commissioner in BPS-17 in the Ex-PCS (E.B) Cadre with immediate effect on purely temporary basis vide notification dated Peshawar 6th March, 1996, yet it could not earn them any benefit or entitle them to a vested right notwithstanding they have been promoted on regular basis with immediate effect vide notification dated 19.2.2008. They, the learned counsel added, could not have claimed any ante-dated promotion even on the occurrence of any vacancy in such scale in violation of Section 8 of the Civil Services Act or Rule 9 of NWFP Civil Service (Executive Group) Rules, 1997, as decidedly promotion is not a vested right. Appeal before the departmental authority, the learned counsel added, or before the Tribunal claiming ante-dated promotion was, therefore, misconceived. The learned Tribunal, the learned counsel maintained, could not have allowed such appeal when it tended to mar the seniority of many others in the run. The learned counsel to support his contention placed reliance on the cases of "Wajahat Hussain, Assistant Director, Social Welfare, Lahore and 7 others. Vs. Province of the Punjab, through Secretary, Social Welfare and Zakat, Lahore and 81 others" (PLD 1991 S.C. 82), "Sh. Anwar Hussain, Assistant Director, Labour Welfare, Lahore Region, Lahore. Vs. Government of the Punjab through Secretary, Labour Department and others" (1985 SCMR 1201), "Nazeer Ahmed. Vs. Government of Sindh through Chief Secretary Sindh, Karachi and 2 others" (2001 SCMR 352), Government of Pakistan through Establishment DIVISION, Islamabad and 7 others. Vs. Ftaniced Akhtar Niazi, Academy of Administrative, Walton Training, Lahore and others" (PLD 2003 S.C. 110).

The learned counsel next contended that a change in scale by means of promotion is not automatic but dependent on a process involving selection, therefore, any change in scale without such process being violative of the relevant law and rules, cannot be maintained. The learned counsel to support his contention placed reliance on the case of "Abid Hussain Sherazi. Vs. Secretary M/o Industries and Production, Government of Pakistan, Islamabad" (2005 SCMR 1742).

4. As against that learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents defended the impugned judgment by contending that where a vacancy occurs in the next higher scale, the Civil Servant officiating or working on acting charge basis thereagainst is not considered for promotion or the process of regular promotion is delayed on account of lethargic attitude of the competent authority or any other exigency so-called, the Civil Servant who is subsequently found fit for such promotion on regular basis cannot be deprived of the salary and other consequential benefits attached to such post. Learned counsel to support his contention placed reliance on the case of "Luqman Zareen and others. Vs. Secretary Education, NWFP and others" (2006 SCMR 1938). The learned counsel next contended that though the NWFP Civil Service (Secretariat Group) Rules, 1997 have been substituted by the NWFP Provincial Management Service Rules, 2007 but the rights of the existing incumbents of both the cadres have been protected by Rule 8 of the latter, therefore, the change in rules would not affect the service structure of the respondents or rights accruing thereunder. The learned counsel next contended that if the concluding paragraph of the impugned judgment is read none of the rights of any of the officers including their seniority has been affected.

ATTESTED

Deputy Registrar

(2006 SCMR 1938), this Court while dealing with an identical issue held as under :-

"It is then a position admitted on all sides that nothing existed in the way of the petitioners on 31.8.2000 which could have disentitled them to regular promotion to the posts in question and that it was only the usual apathy, negligence and bureaucratic red-tapsim which had deprived the petitioners of the fruits that they deserved. The petitioners could not be permitted to be punished for the faults and inaction of others. We are of the view that where a post was available against which a civil servant could be promoted; where such a civil servant was qualified to be promoted to such a higher post; where he was put on the said higher post on officiating or acting charge basis only because the requisite exercise of allowing the regular promotion to the said post was being delayed by the competent authority and where he was subsequently, found fit for the said promotion and was so promoted on regular basis then he was entitled not only to the salary attaching to the said posts but also to all consequential benefits from the very date from which he had been put on the said post on officiating or acting charge basis and we hold accordingly".

While dealing with the reservations of the nature expressed by the learned counsel for the appellant, this Court held as under :-

"A bare perusal of these judgments would thus, show that this Court had always accepted the principle that a person who was asked to hold a higher post to which he was subsequently promoted on regular basis, was entitled to the salary etc. attaching to such a post for the period that he held the same; that he would also be entitled to any other benefits which may be associated with the said post and further that if a vacancy existed in a higher cadre to which a civil servant was qualified to be promoted on regular basis but was not so promoted without any fault on his part and was instead put on the said post on officiating basis then on his regular promotion to the said post, he would be deemed to have been so promoted to the same from the date from which he was allowed to hold the said higher post unless justifiable reasons existed to hold otherwise.

When this being the state of things on factual and legal plain, we don't think the judgment of the learned Service Tribunal is open to any exception. The judgments rendered in the cases of "Wajahat Hussain, Assistant Director, Social Welfare, Lahore and 7 others. Vs. Province of the Punjab, through Secretary, Social Welfare and Zakat, Lahore and 8 others"; "Sh. Anwar Hussain, Assistant Director, Labour Welfare, Lahore Region, Lahore. Vs. Government of the Punjab through Secretary, Labour Department and others"; "Nazeer Ahmed. Vs. Government of Sindh through Chief Secretary Sindh, Karachi and 2 others"; "Government of Pakistan through Establishment Division, Islamabad and 7 others. Vs. Hameed Akhtar Niazi, Academy of Administrative, Walton Training, Lahore and others" and "Abid Hussain Sherazi. Vs. Secretary M/o Industries and Production, Government of Pakistan, Islamabad", (supra) cited by the learned counsel for the appellants are not applicable to the case in hand because of their distinguishable facts and features.

9. For the reasons discussed above, these appeals being without merit are dismissed.

JUDGMENT

SYED MANZOOR ALI SHAH, MEMBER.- This appeal has been filed by Azam Khan, the appellant under Section 4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act 1974 against the order dated 19.2.2008 of respondent No.2, whereby he was promoted to Provincial Management Service (BPS-17) on regular basis with immediate effect from on 19.2.2008 instead of 2.12.2003 and against the order dated 11.6.2010, whereby his departmental appeal has been rejected. It has been prayed that on acceptance of the appeal, the respondents may be directed to antedate and regularize promotion of appellant as Section Officer BPS-17 (SG) w.e.f 2.12.2003 instead of 19.2.2008.

2. Brief facts of the case as averred in the memo: of appeal are that the appellant while serving as Private Secretary in the Civil Secretariat was appointed as Section Officer (BPS-17) on acting charge basis with immediate effect by the competent authority vide order dated 2.12.2003. He was subsequently promoted on regular basis vide notification dated 19.2.2008 with immediate effect instead of ante-dating his promotion w.e.f. 2.12.2003. The appellant agitated the matter several times through appeals/applications to higher authorities for seeking his vested rights regarding ante-dation of his promotion from the date when the vacancy was available in his turn, but in vain. Feeling aggrieved, the appellant filed departmental appeal on 29.4.2010, before the competent authority, which was rejected vide order dated 11.6.2010, hence the present appeal.

3. After receipt of the appeal, pre-admission notices were issued to the respondents. Despite of repeated adjournments for three times, the respondents failed to file written reply. On 15.10.2010, the appeal was admitted to regular hearing. Written reply by the respondents filed on 6.12.2010 and contested the appeal.

4. Arguments heard and record perused.

5. The learned counsel for the appellant argued that a large number of posts of BPS-17 of PCS(Executive & Secretariat Groups) were fallen vacant to the share of promotion quota since long in the Civil Secretariat even then the appellant alongwith others was appointed as Section Officer (BPS-17) on acting charge basis vide order dated 2.12.2003. On 19.2.2008, the appellant was promoted on regular basis with immediate effect instead of ante-dating his promotion when clear vacancy was available for him and deprived him of his legitimate rights. He stated that if a civil servant was asked to hold a higher post to which he was subsequently promoted on regular basis, was entitled to the salary etc. attaching to such post for the period that he held the same and also entitled to any other benefits including seniority etc. because it was the duty of the respondent department to promote him on regular basis against a post available for him. He relied on a judgment of the august Supreme Court of Pakistan as reported in 2006-SCMR-1938. He further stated that vide consolidated judgment dated 13.3.2009, in similar nature cases of Muhammad Iqbal Khattak and another in Service Appeal No. 612/2008, wherein on acceptance of the appeal, the official respondents were directed to ante-date promotion of each of the two appellants to the respective dates on which a vacancy became available for the respective turn of the appellants or from the respective dates of their taking charge of such vacancy on officiating/acting charge basis, whichever is later. This judgment of the Tribunal has also been upheld by the august Supreme Court of Pakistan vide judgment dated 24.5.2012 in C.As No. 860 to 861 of 2010. The appellant being similarly placed person is also entitled to the same treatment. He requested that the appeal may be accepted as prayed for.

7. The learned AGP argued that the appellant was appointed as Section Officer (BPS-17) purely on temporary basis as well as stop gap arrangement which do not accrue any right. Under sub rule-4 of Rule-9 of (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules 1989, appointees against a temporary vacant post are liable to reversion till the return of the lien holder of the post against which he was promoted/appointed. Hence acting charge appointment does not confer any right for the purpose of regular promotion. However, the appellant was appointed on acting charge basis against the post reserved for initial recruitment. On promulgation of PMS Rules 2007, a working paper was prepared and placed before the PSB, which in its meeting held on 9.2.2008, considered name of the appellant and recommended for promotion to the post of PMS (BPS-17) on regular basis. So far as the question of back benefits is concerned, the appellant is getting all financial benefits of BPS-17 w.e.f. the date of his appointment on acting basis. He requested that the appeal may be accepted as prayed for.

8. The Tribunal while agreeing with the arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the appellant observes that the appellant was promoted as Section Officer (BPS-17) on acting charge basis vide order dated 2.12.2003. As per ruling of the august Supreme Court of Pakistan if a civil servant was asked to hold a higher post to which he was subsequently promoted on regular basis, was entitled to the salary etc. attaching to such post for the period that he held the same and also entitled to any other benefits including seniority etc. because it was the duty of the respondent department to promote the appellant on regular basis against a post available for him at relevant time. Judgment dated 13.3.2009 in Service Appeal No. 612/2008 has also been upheld by the august Supreme Court of Pakistan vide judgment dated 24.5.2012 in C.As No. 860 to 861 of 2010.

9. In view of the above, the appeal is accepted to the extent that the respondent department is directed to ante-date promotion of the appellant from the date of availability of post in his quota. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to the record.

Judgment Sheet
IN THE PESHAWAR HIGH COURT PESHAWAR
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

Writ Petition No. 2640 of 2012

JUDGMENT

Date of hearing

20-09-2012

Applicant(s) and Respondent(s) By Shaham Nobi (N. Saeed)

Respondent(s) through Chief Secretary, Civil Secretariat, Peshawar and others By A. Syed (A. A. G.)

WAQAR AHMAD SETH, J. Through this single judgment we propose to dispose of the instant W.P No 2640-P/2012 as well as the connected W.P. No. 2696-P/2012, as the question for determination raised in both the writ petitions is one and the same.

2. The petitioners in these writ petitions are the serving and retired employees of the Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Civil Secretariat, Peshawar. Their grievance is that they were previously serving as Superintendent/ Private Secretaries (BPS-16/17) in the relevant departments and through notification issued by respondent No 3 (Secretary Establishment/ Regulation), the petitioners were appointed as Section Officers on current charge basis with immediate effect. According to them, vide another Notification dated 2.12.2013, the Provincial Selection Board regularized the services of the petitioners as Section Officers (BPS-17) with immediate effect. It is averred in the petitions that although the notification of their regularization was issued with immediate effect but they were performing their duties on the said posts in officiating capacity with effect from 27.04.2006 and in this respect they made several representations to the competent authority for their regularization of services as Section Officers from the date of their appointment on current/ acting charge basis. It is further stated in the petitions that some of their colleagues had approached the Service Tribunal for their ante-date regularization vide Appeal Nos 612 and 613 of 2008, where their appeals were accepted and the relief asked for was granted to them. The said judgment of the Service Tribunal was challenged before the Apex Court by the respondents' department and the Hon'ble Supreme Court of Pakistan also affirmed the judgment of the Service Tribunal through an elaborate and detailed judgment dated 24.05.2012. The above judgments of the Service Tribunal as well as the Hon'ble Supreme Court with regard to ante-date promotion of their colleagues from the date of their taking acting charge on the relevant posts have been implemented and a proper notification was issued in this regard, however, the petitioners were not given the said relief despite the judgment of the August Supreme Court of Pakistan reported in 1996 SCMR 1185 wherein it has been observed that if the Tribunal or the Supreme Court decides a point of law relating to the terms of service of a civil servant which covers not only the case of the civil servant who litigated but also of other civil servants, who may have not taken any legal proceedings, in such a case, the dictates of justice and rule of good governance demand that the benefit of the above judgment be extended to other civil servants who may not be parties to the above litigation instead of compelling them to approach the Tribunal or any other legal forum. The petitioners through these writ petitions have prayed that the respondents be directed to extend the same benefit of the judgment of the Service Tribunal and the Apex Court to them, having more than 30 years service at their credit while in the connected W P No 2696/P/2012 the petitioners are now the retired government servants

1 Record reveals that petitioners were promoted and appointed as Section Officers on current charge basis, with immediate effect and subsequently, vide another notification dated 02.12.2003, the Provincial Government in consultation with Provincial Selection Board, appointed the petitioners on acting charge basis with immediate effect. The record is also suggestive that in the year 2006, all the petitioners along with number of other employees of the same cadre were promoted to the posts of Section Officers PBS-17 on regular basis, by the Competent Authority<sup>7</sup> in consultation with Provincial Selection Board, there is no dispute regarding these facts. However, the dispute started when petitioners claimed regularization with effect from the date of their initial current charge basis / acting charge i.e. with effect from 22-08-2001 and 02-12-2003, and in this respect they filed their departmental appeals which are pending as yet.

5 We have come across three, four judgments of the KPK, Service Tribunal upheld by the apex court, in which colleague and batch mates of petitioners were given effect of regularization from the date when they were appointed on current charge / acting charge basis. Even otherwise there are number of precedents, without any deviation, that if a civil servant was asked to hold a higher post, to which he was subsequently promoted on regular basis, was entitled to the salary, seniority etc. attaching to said post for the period that he held the same, because it was the duty of the department/respondents to promote the incumbent on regular basis against a post available for him at relevant time.

6 The apex court of the country while upholding the said judgments is referred above, of the colleague and batch mats of the petitioners in civil appeal No.860 to 861 of 2010, decided on 24.05.2012, has held as under -

"There is no dispute with the proposition that the terms and conditions of the service of the respondents, in view of the provision contained in Rule-8 of NWFP Civil Service (Secretariat Group) Rules, 2007, shall continue to be governed by the erstwhile rules. There is also no dispute with the proposition that if the respondents were to hold a post on acting charge basis, they could also hold the same on regular basis. In the case of Luqman Zareen and others Vs Secretary Education NWFP and others 2006 SCMR 1938, this court while dealing with the identical issue has held that it is then a position admitted on all sides that nothing existed in the way of the petitioners in their regular promotion to the posts in question and that it was only the usual apathy, negligence and bureaucratic red-tapism which had deprived the petitioners of the fruits that they deserved. The petitioners could not be permitted to be punished for the faults and inaction of others. We are of the view that where a post was available against which a civil servant was qualified to be promoted to such a higher post; where he was put on said higher post on officiating or acting charge basis only because the requisite exercise of allowing the regular promotion to the said post was being delayed by the competent authority and where he was subsequently found fit for the said promotion and was so promoted on regular basis then he was entitled not only to the salary attaching to the said posts but also to all consequential benefits from the very date from which he had been put on the said post on officiating or acting charge basis and we hold accordingly.

While dealing with the reservations of the nature expresses by the learned counsel for the appellant, this court held that a bare perusal of these judgments would thus show that this court had always accepted the principle that a person who was asked to hold a higher post to which he was subsequently promoted on regular basis, was entitled to the salary etc. attaching to such a post for the period that he held the same; that he would also be entitled to any other benefits which may be associated with the said post and further that if a vacancy existed in a higher cadre to which a civil servant was qualified to be promoted on regular basis but was not so promoted without any fault on his part and was instead put on the said post on officiating basis then on his regular promotion to the said post, he would be deemed to have been so promoted to the same from the date from which he was allowed to hold the said higher post unless justifiable reasons existed to hold otherwise.

"When this being the state of things on factual and legal plain, we do not think the judgment of the learned Service Tribunal is open to any exception.

7 After the dismissal of civil appeal, the respondents vide notification dated 25th July 2012 regularized the civil servant by given ante-date, the promotion of all the civil servants who were appointed w.e.f acting charge basis. The said notification was produced by counsel for the petitioner.

at the time of arguments which was available at page 33 of the writ petition. In addition to above cited judgments there are number of judgments which clearly show that it has become a continuous practice that whenever regular promotion is given by the competent authority, the effect is always given from the date of current/acting charge basis. In this respect reliance is placed on 1998 SCMR 969 & 2006 SCMR 1938.

The only stance of the respondents argued at the bar is regarding jurisdiction in view Article 212 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973. In this respect it is an admitted fact that there are orders of tribunal as well as apex court, deciding the same point of law, relating to the terms of service of a civil servant, that covers not only the case of civil servants who litigated, but also for other civil servants, who may have not taken any legal proceedings, the dictates of justice and rule of good governance demand that the benefit of such judgment of the tribunal or of the apex court be extended to other civil servants, who may not be party to said litigation, instead of compelling them to approach the tribunal or any other legal forum. Reliance in this respect is made on 1996 SCMR 1185, 2005 SCMR 499, 2003 SCMR 1030. In view of which this court has the jurisdiction to entertain the writ petition.

Indeed, the cited judgment of the apex court and the number of judgments of service tribunal KPK annexed and referred by the petitioners shows that it was a question of law given the regularization antedation from the date of acting charge; therefore, in view of which petitioners cannot be compelled to approach the service tribunals being civil servants, which, in fact is a longer and time consuming exercise.

10. In view of the above, the writ petition is allowed as prayed for. In the connected writ petition, both the petitioners stands retired during this time and as such while extending the benefits of the judgment, they are also entitled to the same relief and thereafter their retiring benefits, as well.

- v. That right from the issuance of the above said notification, the appellant has been struggling for his right of regularization from the date of his acquiring the Acting Charge i.e. 02-12-2003.
- vi. That in the meanwhile, some colleagues of the appellant being on the same footings have approached to the Service Tribunal and a detailed judgment with regard to the regularization of the appellant was issued by the Service Tribunal in Appeal No. 612 & 613/2008 dated 13.03.2009, whereby the above said relief was granted to the appellants by the Tribunal. Copy of judgment is attached as Annexure-C.
- vii. That, however, the said judgment of the Service Tribunal was challenged before the Supreme Court by the Establishment Department and the Honorable Apex Court was kind enough to give an elaborate and detailed judgment with regard to the same grievance on 24.05.2012. Copy of the said judgment is attached as Annexure-D.
- viii. That as a result of the above said judgment of the Honorable Supreme Court of Pakistan the notification with regard to the anti-date promotion of the petitioners from the dates of their taking Acting Charges on the relevant posts was issued. Copy of the said notification dated 25.07.2012 issued by the Establishment Department is attached herewith as Annexure-E.

- ix. In another case Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Vs Azam Khan, the Supreme Court of Pakistan upheld the decision of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal in the service appeal No.1358/2000 and granted relief to the appellant (Annexure-F).
- x. In another writ petition No.2640-8/2012, Abdus Samad and others Vs Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, the Peshawar High Court Peshawar granted relief to the petitioners by extending the benefit of judgments in the similar cases (Annexure-G).
- xi. Recently the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal has decided in the Service appeal No.1589/2011 Muhammad Jamil Vs Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa to allow the benefits of the judgments in the service appeal, cited above in the same manner as was prescribed and indicated in the above judgments (Annexure-H).
- xii. That in the light of the above noted facts the appellant also did not approach to the Honorable Service Tribunal as his case being totally identical to the cases of the Civil Servants who had agitated the above said matter before the different forums including the Service Tribunal, High Court and the Honorable Supreme Court of Pakistan, hence the appellant is therefore, legally entitled to be treated alike and any denial from his above said right from the Establishment Department side will not only be un-constitutional, discriminatory and also contradictory to their own notification issued above for the regularization of the other Civil Servants being on the same footings.
- xiii. That by not extending the benefit of the judgment of August Supreme Court mentioned above to the appellant, Establishment Department is also in clear violations of the directions as issued by the Supreme Court of Pakistan contained in 1996 SCMR 1185, the relevant partition where of is reproduced below for the ready reference:-
- “we may observe that if the tribunal or this court decides a point of law relating to the terms of service of a civil servant which covers not only the case of the civil servant who litigated but also of other civil servants who may have not taken any legal proceedings, in such a case, the dictates of justice and rule of good governance demand that the benefit of the above judgment be extended to other civil servants, who may not be parties to the above litigation instead of compelling them to approach the Tribunal or any other legal forum. The above view was reiterated in 2005 PLC (CS) 368 and followed in 2006 PLC (CS) 11”.
- xiv. That the Establishment Department is under obligation in terms of Article 190 of Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973 to act in accordance with and to comply with the above un-equivocal direction of the Apex Court and extend the benefit of the above said judgment to the appellant was equally entitled to the same relief and refrain from forcing them to individually approach the Service Tribunal for the same relief as has already been granted by the different legal forums including the Honorable Supreme Court of Pakistan.

3. Secretary to Govt. of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Finance Department.

..... (Respondents)

BRIEF

The appellants have requested for antedation of their promotion in BS-17 w.e.f. the date of their acting charge appointment in BPS-17. These officers while working as Supdt / Private Secretaries were appointed as Section Officers on acting charge basis against the posts falling under initial recruitment quota under rule 9(3) of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Civil Servants (Appointment, Promotion & Transfer) Rules, 1989. Later on, they were promoted as PMS BS-17 on regular basis upon availability of vacancies in their share. According to rule 9(6) of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Civil Servants (Appointment, Promotion & Transfer) Rules, 1989, "acting charge appointment shall not confer any vested right for regular promotion to the post held on acting charge basis". Hence, plea of the appellants for antedation of their promotion is not justified. The judgements of Services Tribunal and Peshawar High Court, Peshawar referred by the appellants in cases of Mr. Muhammad Jamil and Mr. Abdul Samad & others respectively are also challenged by this department in Supreme Court of Pakistan and are subjudice.

Respectfully Sheweth,

PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS:

1. That the appellants have got no cause of action/locus standi to file the instant appeals against the respondents.
2. That the appeals are not maintainable.
3. That the appellants have presented the facts in manipulated form which disentitles them for any relief whatsoever.
4. That the appeals are barred by law/time.
5. That this Honourable Tribunal lacks jurisdiction in the matter.
6. That the appellants have suppressed material facts from the Tribunal.
7. That the appellants have not come to the Tribunal with clean hands.
8. That the appellants are estopped to file the instant appeals due to their own conduct.
9. That the appeals are bad for non-joinder of necessary parties.
10. That the instant appeals are hit by Section 4(1) (b) (ii) of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Services Tribunal Act, 1974.
11. That the appeals are hit by laches.

ON FACTS:

1. Needs no comments / Pertains to record.
2. Correct. Pertains to record.
3. Upon availability of vacancy in their share, the appellants were promoted to PMS BS-17 on regular basis in 2008 and PMS rules were promulgated at that time. Moreover, as per rules, promotion is always notified with immediate effect.
4. Incorrect. The referred appeals i.e. 612 & 613/2008 were filed by Mr. Muhammad Iqbal Khattak and Mr. Ahmad Khan, who belonged to PCS (EG) cadre. As posts were available in their share, hence Services Tribunal, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa ordered to antedate their promotion and the said judgment of Services Tribunal was also upheld by the Supreme Court of Pakistan. Accordingly, their promotion was antedated.
5. As explained above.
6. As explained in Para 4 above.
7. Incorrect. The Service Tribunal, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa had only directed to antedate promotion of Mr. Azam Khan w.e.f the date of occurrence of vacancy in his share. The said judgment of Services Tribunal was also upheld by the Supreme Court of Pakistan. As the promotion of the officer was made at the right time, hence a compliance report has been forwarded to Supreme Court of Pakistan as well as Services Tribunal, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa.
8. The Provincial Government in consultation with Law Department has filed CPLA in the Supreme Court of Pakistan against the referred judgment of Peshawar High Court, Peshawar and the case is subjudice.
9. The Provincial Government in consultation with Law Department has filed CPLA in the Supreme Court of Pakistan against the referred judgment of Services Tribunal, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and the case is subjudice.
10. Incorrect. The departmental appeals of the appellants were rejected as they were devoid of merit and appellants were not entitled for grant of antedation of promotion.

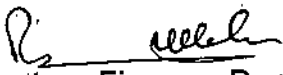

ON GROUNDS:

- B. Incorrect. The appellants were appointed to the post of Section Officer on acting charge basis against the posts falling under initial quota under rule 9(3) of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Civil Servants (Appointment, Promotion & Transfer) Rules, 1989. No posts were available in their share for promotion.
- C. Incorrect. The case of appellants is not identical to the referred cases of Mr. Iqbal Khattak and Mr. Ahmad Khan as both belonged to PCS (EG) cadre and posts were available in their share. Their promotion was antedated as Supreme Court of Pakistan also upheld the judgment of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Services Tribunal in Service appeal No. 612 & 613 of 2008.
- D. This department in consultation with Law Department filed CPLA in the Supreme Court of Pakistan against the referred judgment of Services Tribunal and the case is subjudice.

- E. Incorrect. The cases of appellants are altogether different from the cases of Mr. Iqbal Khattak & Mr. Ahmad Khan as already explained above. However, the instant appeals are similar to the cases of Mr. Abdul Samad & others in Service appeal No. 2640-8/2012 and Appeal No. 1589/2011 filed by Mr. Muhammad Jamil wherein relief has been granted to the appellants by Peshawar High Court, Peshawar & Services Tribunal Khyber Pakhtunkhwa respectively. However, this department in consultation with Law Department has filed CPLA in Supreme Court of Pakistan against above mentioned judgments and cases are still subjudice.
- F. Incorrect. As explained earlier.
- G. The respondents may also be allowed to forward additional grounds.

In the light of the above mentioned submissions / facts, the instant appeals being devoid of merits, legal footing and badly time barred may be dismissed.
