Last order sheet has been perused which shows that the Registrar has wrongly assisted the Bench that notices could not be issued to the respondents because of lack of fund/budget in the relevant head of account. The Registrar was again called as to what was the head of account which permitted any court or Tribunal to issue notices at the state expenses to the private respondents as it is only the parties on whose application, request, appeal, petition etc, the other side is summoned, therefore, the office and all concerned with the notices are directed to refrain from submitting wrong and illegal reports to the benches. Learned Additional Advocate General stated at the bar that the Service Tribunal, it came to limelight that due to lack of provision of budget under the relevant head of account, the notices could not be issued to the respondents. The office is therefore, directed to issue

Subject:- REGULARIZATION/SENIORITY OF SETs.

I am directed to refer to your letter No. 3830/A-88/SET/Graded Pay/08, dated 6.11.2008 on the subject noted above and to state that although the judgment regarding Noor ul Hayat, Muhammad Ismail and Habib ur Rehman are "judgments in personam" and not "judgment in Rem" hence relief granted therein cannot be extended to others. However, as the batch wise/year wise policy of selection has been quashed with, therefore all such chronic cases of seniority and graded pay need to be decided uniformly.

2. So far as the Supreme Court of Pakistan judgment dated 6.9.2007 (in appeals No. 1081-1088 title Habib-ur-Rehman & others Vs Govt) is concerned, these appeals are allowed which means that all reliefs sought therein may be given to them. Therefore they may be given seniority/regularization from the date of passing B.Ed.Examination and Graded Pay from the date of induction as already granted to Mr. Muhammad Ismail (CP No. 898/06) which has been relied upon by Supreme Court of Pakistan in judgment dated 6.9.2007. Moreover, it is the judgment of a larger bench of seven judges including Chief Justice of Pakistan which is more authoritative in its nature and its non implementation will put the department in an awkward position in the shape of contempt of court.

3. The Director, being the appointing authority, is advised to settle the issue of seniority and graded pay of all 163 SETs by giving them seniority from the date of passing B.Ed Examination and Graded Pay from the date of induction (in the light of judgments of NWFP Service Tribunal and Supreme Court of Pakistan delivered at various times) within a month-time, uniformly, under intimation to this Department.

JUDGMENT

PIR BAKHSH SHAH, MEMBER: Admittedly, the appellant was appointed as untrained PTC Teacher on 29.10.1989 and his name was included in the seniority list of PTC Teachers when he passed PTC examination on 24.12.1993. He has brought this service appeal for the following prayer:-

That on acceptance of this appeal,
2296/A/KC/SET(M&F)SL/inform dated 31.8.2012 or any order or rule in respect of not considering untrained service towards seniority be set aside, declare discriminatory, arbitrary, void ab initio and the appellant untrained service w.e.f 01.11.1989 be considered towards seniority, consequent thereof the appellant be given seniority w.e.f 01.11.1989, the (date when the appellant was regularly appointed) with all consequential benefits."

2. Arguments heard and record perused.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant argued that the department has wrongly considered regular appointment of the appellant w.e. from 2-12-1993 the date on which appellant passed his PTC course and his service period as untrained teacher was wrongly ignored which started from 29.10.1979. He submitted that even the first appointment of the appellant on 29.10.1979 was a regular appointment when seen in the light of the Finance Department Notification dated 30.03.2009 and dated 12.10.2009. He submitted that by way of the said notifications the untrained teaching period was excluded only for the purpose of arrears of the increments and allowances but once the graded pay was allowed to the appellant from the date of their first appointment on 29.10.1979 so his seniority cannot be refused to be reckoned from the said date.

4. The appeal was resisted by learned Government Pleader on the ground that the above referred notification were valid to the extent of the graded pay and by no stretch of imagination those could be stretched to include regular appointment of the appellant. He submitted that the appellant was appointed on contract basis, on fixed pay, and he was never regular appointee, much less in the prescribed manner in accordance with rules. He further submitted that the subject matter of this appeal is seniority but it is evident that no private respondents who now stands senior to the appellant, have been made party in this appeal. He submitted that being devoid of merits, the appeal may be dismissed.

We have heard pro & contra arguments at length and have carefully perused the record. Ordinarily, on a post for which a certain special training/examination is must so such appointment without such course/examination cannot be treated as a regular examination. The admitted position in this case is that the appellant was initially appointed as untrained teacher. He was appointed against a fixed pay. There is no legislation or notification from the respondents side specifying in particular that appointment of the PTC Teacher (appellant) will be regular appointment from the date of their first appointment. The Tribunal is afraid to subscribe to the view of the learned counsel for the appellant that in the light of the referred notifications the appellant became regular servant from the date of their first appointment. A regular appointment means an appointment of a duly qualified person in the prescribed manner in accordance with the law and rules which standard is evidently lacking in case of the appellant. After passing the PTC course on 24.12.1993 it seems that the appellant was accordingly regularized in service, therefore, he was given his due position in the seniority list after his regular appointment which step is in accordance with the law and the rules on the subject. In the light of the foregoing discussion, the Tribunal is of the considered view that being devoid of merits, the instant appeal is liable to be dismissed. The same is therefore, dismissed. Parties are left to bear their own cost. File be consigned to the record room.

JUDGEMENT.

MIAN MUHAMMAD, MEMBER(E):- The appellant has invoked jurisdiction of the Service Tribunal under Section 4 of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Service Tribunal Act, 1974 with the prayer that "on acceptance of the instant appeal the respondents may kindly be directed to give due seniority to the appellant since the date of appointment in service i.e. 16.01.1990 instead of 07.09.1993 alongwith all consequential benefits".

02. Brief facts, as per memorandum of appeal, are that the appellant was appointed as Primary School Teacher (untrained) in the respondent department on 09.01.1989 on temporary basis. Services of the appellant were subsequently regularized on 16.01.1990. During his service, the appellant acquired professional educational qualification i.e. M.A., M.Sc (P.S), B.ed and P.T.C. The respondent department circulated tentative revised seniority list of PSTs (2016) wherein the appellant's seniority was reckoned from the date of acquiring P.T.C. i.e. 07.09.1993 though also allegedly given graded pay from the date of appointment but he was not given seniority from the date of his appointment. He therefore, preferred departmental appeal on 18.08.2016 which was not responded within the stipulated period of 90 days, whereafter he filed the instant service appeal in the service Tribunal on 16.12.2016.

03. On admission of the service appeal in preliminary hearing on 23.02.2017, the respondents were put on notice to submit written defense through reply/para-wise comments. Reply/Para-wise comments were submitted on 26.04.2017. We have heard learned counsel for the appellant as well as learned District Attorney for the respondents in Divisional Bench and gone through the record thoroughly with their valuable assistance today.

04. Learned counsel for the appellant argued that the respondent department has wrongly considered the seniority of appellant from the date of his acquiring professional qualification i.e. P.T.C. w.e.f. 07.09.1993 and not from the date of regularization of his service w.e.f. 16.01.1990. The appellant was granted graded pay from the date of his appointment, therefore, his seniority is also required to be reckoned from the date of his appointment. He argued that inaction on part of the respondent department to give seniority to the appellant from the date of his appointment i.e. 16.01.1990, is against the provision of Article 4 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan. He further argued that he may be granted seniority from the date of his appointment in service i.e. 16.01.1990 instead of acquiring profession qualification w.e.f. 07.09.1993 with all consequential back benefits, while concluding his arguments.

05. Learned District Attorney on the other hand, contended that due to lack of prescribed professional qualification for the post of PTC, the first appointment of appellant as untrained PTC was purely temporary and upon acquiring the prescribed qualification on 07.09.1993 he became eligible for the post of PTC. His seniority was therefore, correctly reckoned from the date of 07.09.1993. He further argued that the appellant has not arrayed any private person as respondent who now stands senior to the appellant in the impugned seniority list. He contended that regular appointment means an appointment of a duly qualified person in the prescribed manner in accordance with law and rules; the standard which is lacking in the case of appellant. Moreover, after passing the PTC course i.e. 07.09.1993 the appellant was accordingly regularized in service and he was given his due position in seniority list after his regular appointment. He relied on Service Tribunal judgement of 13.06.2016 delivered in service appeal No. 11/2015 of Samullah Jan SPST (BS-14) versus Secretary Elementary & Secondary Education and others.

ATTESTED

The service appeal in hand being devoid of any merit may be dismissed, he concluded.

06. It is evident from the record and which is not disputed that the appellant was initially appointed as PTC (untrained) (now PST) on temporary/adhoc basis on fixed pay on 09.01.1989 and his services were later on regularized on 16.01.1990. It was during service that the appellant acquired the required qualification for the post of PST on 07.09.1993 and as such his seniority was shown in column 16 (Date of taken over charge) against PST post from the date of passing PTC examination, in the tentative revised seniority list of PSTs (2016). The Service Tribunal in its judgement dated 13.06.2016 delivered in service appeal No. 11/2015 titled Santullah Jan SPST (BS-14) Versus Secretary Elementary & Secondary Education Khyber Pakhtunkhwa laid down the following principle:-

"Ordinarily on a post for which a certain special training/examination is must so such appointment without such course/examination cannot be treated as a regular examination. The admitted position in this case is that the appellant was initially appointed as untrained teacher. He was appointed against a fixed pay. There is no legislation or notification from the respondents side specifying in particular that appointment of the PTC Teacher (appellant) will be regular appointment from the date of their first appointment. The Tribunal is afraid to subscribe the view of the learned counsel for the appellant that in the light of the referred notifications the appellant became regular servant from the date of their first appointment. A regular appointment means an appointment of a duly qualified person in the prescribed manner in accordance with the law and rules which standard is evidently lacking in case of the appellant. After passing the PTC Course on 24.12.1993 it seems that the appellant was accordingly regularized in service, therefore, he was given his due position in the seniority list after his regular appointment which step is in accordance with the law and rules on the subject."

07. Similarly, Section 8 (4) of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Civil Servants Act, 1973 is relevant to be quoted here which lays down the principle for determining seniority of a civil servant in the following:

"Seniority in a post, service or cadre to which a Civil Servant is promoted shall take effect from the date of regular appointment to that post."

08. In view of the foregoing discussion, It can be concluded that as the appellant was appointed as regular PST with effect from the date of passing the basic required qualification for the post of PTC on 07.09.1993 he has therefore rightly been placed in the tentative revised seniority list (2016) from such date. We, therefore, find that the appellant has been treated in accordance with law and relevant rules. The service appeal being devoid of merit, is dismissed. Parties are left to bear their own costs. File be consigned to record room.
