JUDGMENT

JUSTICE (R) SALIM KHAN, CHAIRMAN:- Contentions of the appellant are that she was appointed as SET in BPS-15 on fixed pay vide order dated 9.4.1990, her result of B.Ed course was declared on 8.11.1990, her name was enlisted on 25.11.1990 as B.Ed qualified teacher. She was appointed on merit on 4.5.1991 but on fixed pay. She was allowed BPS-16 on 23.5.1995, and she used to receive graded pay vide order dated 23.2.1993 w.e.f 24.1.1991. Vide Service Appeal No. 99 of 1996, this Tribunal decided the case in her favour on 16.7.1996 and the August Supreme Court of Pakistan maintained the judgment of this Tribunal in C.P. No.228-P of 1997 vide judgment/order dated 6.2.1998.

2. The appellant further contended that final seniority list of SETs(Science) Female, as it stood on 31.12.2006, was circulated on 25.1.2007. The name of the appellant was mentioned in that list at S.No. 758 instead of S.No. 390 above the name of Mst.Taslim-un-Nissa. (respondent No.3). The appellant submitted departmental appeal on 19.7.2007 which was forwarded vide letters dated 21.7.2007 and 31.7.2007. But the same had not been finally decided till the filing of this appeal on 07.11.2007.

3. The official respondents contested the appeal and contended that the appellant was initially appointed purely on temporary and ad-hoc basis as stop-gap arrangement on fixed pay, and the appellant accepted the terms and conditions without any objection. It was further contended that the appellant was appointed on fixed pay, alongwith others, after acquiring the required qualification of B.Ed, and the appellant did not object to the terms and conditions of such appointment. They were of the view that the appellant was regularized with other candidates on her own batch-wise/year-wise turn which she accepted accordingly without any hesitation/resistance. They further contended that the judgment of the August Supreme Court of Pakistan was regarding the grant of graded pay from the date of acquiring the requisite qualification.

4. We heard the arguments and perused the record.

5. The basic issues of temporary and ad-hoc appointment and graded pay have already been decided vide judgment in Service Appeal No. 99/1996, decided on 16.7.1996. It was held in that case that the contention that graded pay had been granted to her on her turn on merit did not hold ground because, according to August Supreme Court of Pakistan, if a person working on a post, was fully qualified, he/she was perfectly entitled to get the pay and other monetary benefits attached to that post. It was further held that the appellant was fully qualified, that she was B.Sc, B.Ed and had also passed M.Ed, so her educational qualifications were much more than the required qualification. She had got a spotless service record and had gained sufficient teaching experience at her credit. There was no hurdle for the grant of graded pay to the appellant. It was declared that she was perfectly entitled to grant of graded pay from the date of acquiring the requisite qualification.

6. That judgment, in the light of the judgment in C.P. No. 228-P of 1997, granted by the August Supreme Court of Pakistan, has attained finality. The Civil Petition against that judgment of this Tribunal was dismissed as time-barred because no sufficient cause had been shown for condoning the delay. In the light of the above, it has to be accepted that the services of the appellant were declared regular with effect from the date of her acquiring the higher qualification on 8.11.1990.

7. The respondents contended that the appellant was regularized in accordance with her batch-wise/year-wise merit. The appellant was entitled to the grant of seniority with effect from 8.11.1990 which is the date of her acquiring the higher qualification. The respondents do not have the right to keep her regularization pending till the appointment of other persons of the same batch. The appellant is entitled to seniority among the persons who were available in service on 8.11.1990. Her seniority cannot be delayed for the purposes of its fixation with reference to the persons who were not then recruited and were not available in service on 8.11.1990.

8. We, therefore, accept the present appeal, and direct the official respondents to fix the seniority of the appellant as it was on 8.11.1990 with reference to the persons who were qualified and were available in service on that date, without reference to the cases of the persons who belonged to the batch/year of passing of B.Ed examination like the appellant but were not in service on 8.11.1990. We leave the parties to bear their own costs.
