

Appeal No.1035/2008 and dated 23.02.2008 passed in Appeal No.517/2008, wherein, appellants were held entitled to the antedation of regular promotion/posting from a certain date and were also held entitled to all back benefits on the strength of modified order with their further entitlement to all back benefits and recovery of pay and arrears etc. subject to the relevant rules regarding recovery of arrears and financial benefits, to which, learned counsel submitted that back benefits including determination of seniority and recovery of financial benefits were yet to be given in case of the petitioner. The learned counsel was asked as to whether he was placed junior to his batch-mates or juniors to him with whom he was earlier placed above in order of merit and initially appointed, he submitted that his seniority was not so disturbed. The learned counsel was, however, not clear as to what was the stance of the petitioner regarding seniority. As regards the recovery of any arrears etc., the learned counsel was asked as how much arrears and for what period those arrears were granted to the petitioner in the judgment sought to be implemented, learned counsel was not sure certain nor the petitioner himself. However, he said that he would be satisfied if a direction was given to the petitioner and the respondents to sit together and to calculate the arrears/financial benefits, which, if any, were granted to the petitioner in the judgment passed on 07.05.2010 in his appeal. Order accordingly. Consign.
