3. At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioners pointed out at the bar that the issue raised by the petitioners in this petition has already been laid to rest by this court in judgments dated 21.02.2018, 22.02.2018, 09.05.2018 and 10.05.2018 delivered in Writ Petitions No. 910-A/2016, 209-A/2017, 1082-A/2016 and 48-A/2017 respectively wherein, while accepting the referred petitions this court has not only declared the likewise notifications as illegal and of no legal effect but at the same time also ordered for re-instatement of the petitioners therein in their service leaving the respondents at liberty to proceed against them, if they so wish but in accordance with law and rules on the subject.

4. Perusal of the case record would show that the petitioners' case is fully at par with the referred writ petitions. When in all respect the petitioners' case is identical with the cases already decided by this court, then there would be no justification to take a view different than the one already taken by this Court earlier.

5. In the wake of the above and for the reasons given in the referred judgments, this petition is allowed and consequently, the impugned notifications dated 07.09.2016 are declared illegal, unlawful and of no legal effect with direction to the respondents to re-instate the petitioners in their service, however, the respondents would be at liberty to proceed against them if they so wish but in accordance with law and rules on the subject.

the aforesaid writ petition filed by the petitioner, this Court directed the respondents, as under:

"In the wake of the above and for the reasons given in the referred judgments, this petition is allowed and consequently, the impugned notifications dated 07.09.2016 are declared illegal, unlawful and of no legal effect with direction to the respondents to re-instate the petitioners in their service, however, the respondents would be at liberty to proceed against them if they so wish but in accordance with law rules on the subject."

The record reflects that the respondents, in compliance with the above referred direction of this Court passed in WP No.897-A/2016, re-instated the petitioner in service vide Notification bearing Erdst No.4930-36 dated 03.07.2018, thus, the judgment of this Court has been implemented by the respondents. Since, there was no direction qua payment of back benefits to the petitioner in the judgment of this Court, the respondents were not under obligation to grant such benefits. Needless to refer that the respondents have already mentioned in the said notification that the arrears of pay and allowances will be decided on the outcome of the de novo inquiry. As such, contempt of Court proceedings cannot be initiated against the respondents, when they have already complied with the order of this Court dated 15.05.2018.
